Paris Wyoming:

Paris, Wyoming Jim James, 2012-01-26 It's devastating to learn you are going to die young. But what choices do you make when you realize you never lived. Fall in love. Commit murder. Both Jack Kindler is in France to receive radical medical treatment and live or die. When he meets Tatiana and hears her story he finds the one thing he must do to give his impending death some meaning. He will collect a debt owed to her. In Paris Wyoming Jim James has written a story wrapped in a dual tragedy and presented it with adventure and intrigue. Jack from Wyoming a man in the truest sense of the word believes he should suffer his life threatening problem without burdening others and Tatiana a woman whose charm and intelligence could make world domination an easily attainable goal believes herself ruined and of no interest to any man. Marcel the jovial wise owner of the Parisian bookshop that is the center of much of the story is just the right catalyst. This book was a pleasure to read an excellent rendering of the hero and the heroine's quests for finality and redemption.
