Paris Notebooks Mavis Gallant,2023-09 Enthralling essays on the expatriate experience in Paris and shrewd literary criticism by one of the twentieth century's finest writers Mavis Gallant is revered as one of the finest short story writers of her generation but she was also an astute observer and formidable reporter This selection of Gallant's essays and reviews written between 1968 and 1985 begins with her impressions of the Parisian student uprising in May 1968 originally published in The New Yorker The Events in May inspired Wes Anderson's star studded film The French Dispatch and Gallant herself served as inspiration for the female journalist portrayed by Academy Award winner Frances McDormand Paris Notebooks presents a whole range of subjects portraying French society ranging from architecture and literature to the gripping story of Gabrielle Russier a young French schoolteacher driven to imprisonment madness and suicide as the result of an affair with one of her students Also included are Gallant's astute reviews of books by major figures such Vladimir Nabokov Simone de Beauvoir Colette and Gunter Grass No matter what form she's working in Mavis Gallant's flawless prose is always full of wit and acuity This Nonpareil edition includes a new introduction by acclaimed literary biographer Hermione Lee

Paris Notebooks Mavis Gallant,1986 Travelers visitors and expatriates Gallant's characters have left homes that don't quite suit them They find themselves in damp Italian villas or Moscow opera houses or Catalan circus arenas or Genevan hospitals their loves or families on the verge of crumbling if not already lost Most will survive but in the moments the author chooses to describe them they are desperately blind to their errors of judgment or their quiet tragedies Gallant Canadian born but a Parisian since 1950 is a master of short story form and style her language avoids flourishes for real craft and her wisdom is often astounding

Her Own Thinker Christl Verduyn,2023-06-01 Her Own Thinker Canadian Women Writers as Essayists explores the thinking ideas and insights that Canadian women fiction writers have chosen to express in essay form rather than in fiction form It looks at this substantial body of writing with a primary focus on collections of essays and on those published since the 1960s In all it considers over 40 collections offering an overview and appreciation of this generally overlooked work and its contributions to cultural and intellectual thinking in Canada

Paris Notebooks Mavis Gallant,1988-03-01

Transient Questions ,2021-09-20 Mavis Gallant has been a leading literary figure in Canada since her first short story published in 1951 and has grown to be considered internationally as a modern master of the genre Her writing is nuanced sensitive gifted deep and concise She leaves everything open for the hidden potential that can always be discovered Times change society history politics may develop out of recognition Cultures metamorphose Literary landscapes and theories are renewed But the classics of our time stay where they are pillars of that which is solidly about us Mavis Gallant's work is of that calibre her writing will remain interesting and relevant no matter what else happens This book is an exploration of what Gallant's readers are thinking now where they place her in the panorama of literature and what meaning she has for them now Scholars continue to probe into the stories their characters the capsules of history they present and continue to find them challenging As with Shakespeare no amount of scrutiny will yield the final answer That is how complex Gallant's writing is Especially now when the positioning of her characters is a more prominent condition in general we need to review Gallant's artistic insights As Francine Prose says in Harper's Magazine Gallant's cast of characters are a motley assortment of refugees fugitives and travelers and displaced persons scrambling on the margins of a society they will never belong to This is the modern condition As with other great writers Gallant shows herself to be prophetic in cutting down to the roots of the sensibility of our era We are reading her work and we are thinking about it and talking about it This book is part of that large conversation Contributors are Neil Besner Di Brandt Nicole C t John Lent Gerald Lynch Maria Nolle Ng Peter Stevens Simone Vauthier Per Winther

The Found Voice Denis Sampson, 2016-05-12 The Found Voice Writers Beginnings uses the means of literary biography and criticism to do something rarely attempted to understand how a key creative period establishes the authoritative voice of a unique artist The essays which explore this hidden process of the writer writing focus on some of the major writers of recent times V S Naipaul J M Coetzee Alice Munro William Trevor and Mavis Gallant The focus of investigation is a single work by each author and many of them identify the book in which this turning point was reached The writers have a somewhat different sense of what the voice is a true voice the voice in the mind the writing voice etc yet all of them accept the phrase finding a voice as a decisive and necessary process towards a unique style and vision their raison d'être as artists These essays allow each one to define his or her sense of the process of writing and their style is exploratory Nevertheless certain patterns emerge of migration and cultural displacement of linguistic self consciousness of memory and a reimagining of the first home of absorbing and rejecting mentors and models Crucially the essays rely not just on what led up to the moment of creation but on a sense of the career that emerged from it Most of the writers have written retrospectively in memoirs interviews or essays about the pivotal work and its foundational significance They are the best witnesses to the process although their silence or their commentary is understood in terms of the many strands of the narrative that each essay presents

Les Belles Etrangères Jane Koustas, 2008-03-10 While translation history in Canada is well documented the history of the translation of Canadian fiction outside the nation remains obscure Les Belles étrangères examines the translation of Canadian English language fiction in France This book considers the history of this practice the reasons for the move away from Quebec translators as well as the process and perils involved in this detour Within a theoretical framework and drawing on primary sources this study considers the historical theoretical and concrete aspects of this practice through the study of the translations of authors such as Robertson Davies Carol Shields Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ann Marie MacDonald and Alistair MacLeod The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of English language novels poetry and plays published and translated in France over the past 240 years

Published in English Imagining Paris J. Gerald Kennedy, 1993-01-01 Explores how living in Paris shaped the literary works of five expatriate Americans Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemingway Henry Miller F Scott Fitzgerald and Djuna Barnes The book treats these figures and their works as instances of the effect of place on writing and the formation of the self
