Passion for Place Book II Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 Among the multiple subliminal passions that inspire our life in innumerable ways literature shows us one that seems to play a particularly penetrating role in human concerns This passion which Tymieniecka calls an esoteric passion finds its projection and crystallization in space it is the esoteric passion for space This subliminal passion investigated through literature allows the philosopher to reach beneath the fallacious separations of nature humanness and the cultural world restoring the wholeness of experience that has become lost in the artificial one sidedness of contemporary approaches confined to language as they are The elemental passion for place is investigated here in the literary fruits of creative imagination Unravelled from the very depths of the primogenital onto poietic unfolding of life the passion for place is revealed as projecting into the flux of life it is a station of life significance This collection presents papers from two conferences of the International Society of Phenomenology and

Sutherland Edwards,1893 Cloud: Between Paris and Tehran Joan Copjec,2025-05-06 A theoretical examination of veiling shame and modesty in the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami through the lenses of Islamic philosophy and Lacanian psychoanalysis In Cloud Between Paris and Tehran Joan Copjec examines the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami The key to these films she argues lies in the image of a fragile yet sheltering tree that appears in several of his films This simple image depicts a central concept of Islamic philosophy which is known as the Cloud or the Imaginal World It designates the place out of which all the things of this world manifest themselves and covers or veils that which must remain hidden The concept of the Cloud plays a significant role in defining 1 the unique nature of the Islamic God who is not a creator or father 2 the nature of the image which assumes a priority and a greater power than it is elsewhere accorded and 3 the nature of modesty shame and sexuality Copjec walks her readers through the thicket of Islamic philosophy while demonstrating how its abstract concepts produce what audiences see on screen The most ambitious aspect of the book lies in its attempt to demonstrate the inheritance by psychoanalysis of a new notion of knowledge or gnosis formulated by Muslim thinkers who radically redefined the relation between body and thought
