Kate Chopin and Catholicism Heather Ostman,2020-05-13 This book explores the Catholic aesthetic and mystical dimensions in Kate Chopin's fiction within the context of an evolving American Catholicism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Through a close reading of her novels and numerous short stories, Kate Chopin and Catholicism looks at the ways Chopin represented Catholicism in her work as a literary device that served on multiple levels as an aesthetic within local color depictions of Louisiana as a trope for illuminating the tensions surrounding nineteenth century women's struggles for autonomy as a critique of the Catholic dogma that subordinated authenticity and physical and emotional pleasure and as it pointed to the distinction between religious doctrine and mystical experience and enabled the articulation of spirituality beyond the context of the Church. This book reveals Chopin to be not only a literary visionary but a writer who saw divinity in the natural world. The Awakening Henry Bordeaux, 1914 The Short Story Andrew Kahn, 2021 Drawing on examples from across the globe and throughout history, Andrew Kahn explores the key characteristics of the short story. He shows how its rise was intertwined with international print culture and discusses the essential techniques within this thriving literary genre as well as the ways in which it is constantly innovated even today. Paris Savant Bruno Belhoste, 2019-05-17

Novelist Honoré de Balzac was the first to use the phrase Paris savant to refer to the dynamic Parisian scientific and intellectual community of the late 18th century. This book discusses how the Parisian scientific community came into its important place in the French Enlightenment focusing on the Academy of Sciences.
