Play and Participation in Contemporary Arts Practices Tim Stott, 2015-03-24 This book engages debates in current art criticism concerning the turn toward participatory works of art In particular it analyzes ludic participation in which play and games are used organizationally so that participants actively engage with or complete the work of art through their play Here Stott explores the complex and systematic organization of works of ludic participation showing how these correlate with social systems of communication exhibition and governance At a time when the advocacy of play and participation has become widespread in our culture he addresses the shortage of literature on the use of play and games in modern and contemporary arts practice in order to begin a play theory of organization and governance

The Collaborative Artist's Book Alexandra J. Gold, 2023-06-08 35th Modern Language Association Prize for Contingent Faculty and Independent Scholars Honorable Mention The Collaborative Artist's Book offers a rare glimpse into collaborations between poets and painters from 1945 to the present and highlights how the artist's book became a critical form for experimental American artists in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries Alexandra Gold provides a broad overview of the artist's book form and the many ongoing debates and challenges from the disciplinary to the institutional that these forms continue to pose Gold presents five case studies and details not only how each individual collaboration came to be but how all five together engage and challenge conventional ideals about art subjectivity poetry and interpersonal relations as well as complex social questions related to gender and race Taking several of these books out of special collections libraries and museum archives and making them available to a broad readership Gold brings to light a whole genre that has been largely forgotten or neglected

Jannis Kounellis (in Acq) Stephen Bann, 2003 Over the past 40 years sculptor and installation artist Jannis Kounellis has established himself as a unique presence in the world of contemporary art His work whether included in temporary exhibitions or placed in semi-permanent installations invariably lingers in the memory because of its forceful character and its ability to transform its immediate environment Stephen Bann refers to Kounellis's working practice as a process of making strange In all his installations the material impact of the work sets off a trail of associations Potent examples include his 1969 installation of twelve tethered live horses in a gallery in Rome the city where the prototypes of the equestrian monuments of Antiquity can still be seen or his 1975 Civil Tragedy installation in which a hat stand with black hat and coat against a gold leaf background lit by a small lamp recalled the café society of Central Europe against a wall of Byzantine splendor As an artist Kounellis has found his special location in Rome At the age of 20 he made the journey there from Piraeus the ancient port of Athens and began his career His works continue to bear the hallmarks of his Eastern Mediterranean origin as well as testifying to his concern with the links between Russian Modernism and the Byzantine tradition Stephen Bann has not set out to write a conventional monograph about the artist Rather he looks at the underlying mechanisms in Kounellis's practice suggesting the ways in which they are important in the broader context of late modernist art He outlines the distinctive way in which Kounellis takes account of space as a necessary preliminary to working within it and discusses the historical and cultural dimension to which Kounellis lays claim Plane Image Gary Garrels, 2006 Brice Marden A Retrospective ISBN 0 87070 446 X 978 0 87070 446 8 Hardcover 11 5 x 9 5 in 240 pgs 248 color U S 60 00 CDN 72 00 October Art Moving Pictures John G.
