Partisans In An Uncertain World:

Partisans in an Uncertain World Paul Hoggett, 1992-01-01 What has happened to the idealism and radicalism of the 1960s and 1970s Paul Hoggett reflects on the present plight of people who mean well in the face of the rise of conservatism and the crisis of the Left He examines these in the light of the psychoanalytic ideas of Klein Bion Meltzer and Winnicott and he asks what their work on primitive psychological processes can tell us about the institutionalisation of indifference and cruelty

The Closed Partisan Mind Matthew D. Luttig, 2023-04-15 The Closed Partisan Mind traces the roots of partisan polarization to psychological closed mindedness in the electorate and the changing perception of politics created by polarized political leaders and the new media environment American politics today can be defined by the intense and increasingly toxic divide between Democrats and Republicans Matthew D Luttig explores why so many Americans have endorsed this level of political conflict Luttig illustrates how the psychological need for closure leads people regardless of whether they identify as Democrat or Republican to express more polarized political attitudes This association between closed minds and partisan polarization is a new phenomenon and can be traced to broader changes in American society such as the creation of ideologically distinct political parties and a fragmented media environment These developments have simplified politics into a black or white us versus them conflict making politics appeal to those with closed minds Today strong partisans do not just cheer for their political party to win elections Instead more akin to religious true believers strong partisans use their affiliation as a means of understanding right and wrong friend and enemy true and false The Closed Partisan Mind reveals that these dynamics have manifested in both a new type of partisanship and a new type of partisan The emergence of this new closed partisanship illustrates the dangers that polarization has wrought on society politics and the minds of Americans

Stalin's Guerrillas Kenneth Slepyan, 2006 A detailed study of the operations politics culture and autonomy of Soviet partisans or guerrillas who fought the German army in WWII Blending military political social and cultural history Slepyan also provides a prism for viewing relations between the suffocating Stalinist state and its independent partisan warriors

Psychoanalysis, Culture & Society, 2006 Free Associations, 1995 Pragmatism and Social Hope Judith M. Green, 2008-11-20 Since 9 11 citizens of all nations have been searching for a democratic public philosophy that provides practical and inspiring answers to the problems of the twenty first century Drawing on the wisdom of past and present pragmatist thinkers Judith M Green maps a contemporary form of citizenship that emphasizes participation and cooperation and reclaims the critical role of social movements and nongovernmental organizations Starting with empowering processes of storytelling truth and reconciliation and collaborative vision questing that allow individuals to give voice and new meaning to their loss anxiety and hope Green frames cooperative inquiries to guide transformative actions From this second strand of the democratic experience leaders and participating citizens can help to shape a more desirable democratic future In dialogue with Richard Rorty Judith Butler James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Elie Wiesel Viktor Frankl Cornel West and other contemporary thinkers Green defines the need for deeper understanding and fulfillment of the potentials of the democratic ideal Drawing insights from Thomas Jefferson Walt Whitman William James John Dewey Jane Adams and other earlier thinkers Green frames a pragmatist understanding of emerging realities and possibilities growing wells of shared truths multifaceted histories and mutually transformative experiences of citizenship Employing examples from America's complex history and from recent world events Green locates four sites for effective citizen activism government at all levels nonprofit organizations issue focused campaigns and social movements and daily urban living Green shows how citizens can revive social hope and deepen the democratic experience by drawing on their own knowledge and developing their capabilities through inclusive civic participation
