Partners in Protest Diana Collins,1995-04-01 Bringing Art to Life Andrew Horrall,2009-09-14 Only thirty nine when he took over the National Gallery in 1955 Jarvis already had an extraordinary record of achievement and social mobility at home and in England he had trained with Canada s greatest artists won a Rhodes scholarship lunched at the Algonquin Round Table in New York managed an aircraft factory written a bestseller produced films run a slum settlement and moved in a London social circle that included No l Coward and Vivien Leigh As head of the National Gallery Jarvis was a provocative public educator advocating his idea of a museum without walls in countless public appearances Instrumental in bringing modern art to the National Gallery he shook artists and the art minded public out of a period of national complacency This first detailed account of the controversy surrounding his time at the gallery provides an important context for the ongoing and contested role of publicly supported arts and art institutions in this country Sehnsucht: The C. S. Lewis Journal Bruce R. Johnson,2016-12-14 Sehnsucht The C S Lewis Journal established by the Arizona C S Lewis Society in 2007 is the only peer reviewed journal devoted to the study of C S Lewis and his writings published anywhere in the world It exists to promote literary theological historical biographical philosophical bibliographical and cultural interest broadly defined in Lewis and his writings The journal includes articles review essays book reviews film reviews and play reviews bibliographical material poetry interviews editorials and announcements of Lewis related conferences events and publications Its readership is aimed at academic scholars from a wide variety of disciplines as well as learned non scholars and Lewis enthusiasts At this time Sehnsucht is published once a year Amnesty International and Human Rights Activism in Postwar Britain, 1945-1977 Tom Buchanan,2020-04-30 In this definitive new account of the emergence of human rights activism in post war Britain Tom Buchanan shows how disparate individuals organisations and causes gradually came to acquire a common identity as human rights activists This was a slow process whereby a coalition of activists working on causes ranging from anti fascism anti apartheid and decolonisation to civil liberties and the peace movement began to come together under the banner of human rights The launch of Amnesty International in 1961 and its landmark winning of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1977 provided a model and inspiration to many new activist movements in the field of human rights and helped to affect major changes towards public and political attitudes towards human rights issues across the globe NGOs in Contemporary Britain N. Crowson,M. Hilton,J. McKay,2009-04-22 Examining the history of social movements and non state socio political action this volume shows how Non Governmental Organisations NGOs have proliferated in Britain since 1945 and how they have raised new political agendas revived associational life and arguably re politicized generations disillusioned with the politics of the ballot box British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa Matthew P. Llewellyn,Toby C. Rider,2024-11-25 The transnational anti apartheid sport boycott of South Africa represented the most prominent extended and controversial anti racism campaign in the history of sport Spearheaded by prominent British religious and anti colonial figures and exiled South Africans emboldened by communist and Global South support and legitimised by supranational political bodies such as the United Nations the Organisation of African Unity and the Commonwealth the sport boycott helped propel anti apartheid out of relative obscurity and struck at the very heart of a cultural practice that served an explicitly ideological function in Afrikaner society Britain held a dichotomous even paradoxical role as both prosecutor and defender of white South Africa This book utilises sport as a critical lens for understanding the dynamics and dichotomies of British attitudes towards the apartheid regime Debates over whether to continue or to cut sporting links with apartheid South Africa proved bitterly divisive The considerable weight the subject carried and the degree to which it saturated British political and social discourse for four decades speaks to its impact and importance British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa represents the first archival based historical examination of Britain s sporting relations with South Africa throughout the apartheid era 1948 1994 Situating the analysis within the shifting multiracial and multicultural landscapes of postcolonial Britain and within global political cultural sporting and ideological debates the authors trace the origins and evolution of the transnational sport boycott and examine what inspired Britons to energise anti apartheid sport campaigns and in contrast what drove many others to vehemently oppose them at every turn

The Canons Trevor Beeson, 2006 Describes many engaging Canons in the history of the Church of England Tracing the course of the change in the fortunes of the English cathedrals and in the lives of interesting and significant Canons who were in office this work provides readers with an introduction to two centuries of Church history with these portraits of remarkable men
