Partners in Crime (Sleuth or Dare #1) Kim Harrington, 2012-05-01 Whodunit When best friends Darcy and Norah have to create a fake business for a school assignment they come up with a great idea a detective agency Darcy loves mysteries and Norah likes helping people so it's a perfect fit But then their pretend agency gets a real case Someone is missing and it's up to Darcy and Norah to take on the search. Unfortunately there's someone else out there who doesn't want the two detectives stirring up any trouble. With the help of hidden clues, spy gadgets, and trusted friends, can Darcy and Norah crack the case in time? Partners in Crime Shamini Flint, 2007-01-01 Crime Partners Donald Goines, 2012-11-27

Donald Goines's powerful first novel in the Kenyatta series lays bare the bloody, brutal world of crime in the black ghetto where, as Goines puts it, kindness is the sweetest con of all. Here is the gutsy and often shocking world of Billy and Jackie, prison buddies on the streets and hot on the trigger. All those other black writers, no matter how well they dealt with black experience, appealed largely to an educated middle-class, largely white readership. They brought news of one place to the residents of another. Goines's novels, on the other hand, are written from ground zero. They are almost unbearable. It is not the educated voice of a writer who has so to speak risen above his background; it is the voice of the ghetto itself. Michael Covino, The Village Voice. Ex-Partner Stalking and Children Merja Laitinen, Anna Nikupeteri, Heng Choon (Oliver) Chan, 2024-10-15

PROVIDES AN AUTHORITATIVE OVERVIEW OF STALKING BEHAVIOR PERPETRATED BY PARENTS AND ITS IMPACTS ON CHILDREN. Stalking targeted at one of the child's parents by the other poses a major psychosocial and physical threat to children's wellbeing and security. Although interdisciplinary research on stalking has expanded in recent decades, intimate partner/ex-partner stalking has been viewed as an adults-only problem. Ex-Partner Stalking and Children brings together scholars and practitioners from different disciplines in the field to examine ex-partner stalking as a psychosocial and criminological issue in children's and young people's lives. Providing both theoretical and practical perspectives, this comprehensive volume explores approaches for increasing awareness of parental stalking, addressing its impacts on children and young people, and advancing interventions and methods of support for them. Throughout the text, the authors challenge existing conceptions of intimate partner/ex-partner stalking as a phenomenon that exists only between the partners, rather than a form of gendered violence that creates a victimizing environment for the children. A novel contribution to both scholarly and practical understandings of ex-partner stalking, this important book addresses a gap in knowledge on the socially, ethically, and legally challenging phenomenon of cases when one parent is stalking the other. Offers insights and tools to help practitioners better recognize, support, and intervene in parental stalking situations involving children. Examines research findings on stalking behavior, including psychological and trauma perspectives. Discusses best practices and working methods, challenges in identifying the child's experiences, and factors preventing children from receiving help. Recommends future directions in promoting children's and young people's rights in ex-partner stalking. Part of the acclaimed Psycho-Criminology of Crime, Mental Health, and the Law series. Ex-Partner Stalking and Children: The Impact on Children When One Parent is Stalking the Other is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students in disciplines such as criminology, social work, healthcare, psychology, and education, and an invaluable resource for law enforcement, staff nurses, psychologists, therapists, social workers, teachers, and other professionals who work with victims of stalking. K9 Partner Jim

McIlwain,2017-10-24 K9 Partner By Jim McIlwain K9 Partner is a thrilling novel about the institution of a K9 officer in the previously sleepy and crime free town of Westfield Randy Thompson an officer with the Westfield Police Department is frustrated that his town is turning into a hotbed of drug trafficking and crime After a particularly grizzly standoff involving a domestic dispute Randy is sent to the Southern Training Academy to train with a K9 officer There he meets Nero his soon to be crime fighting partner Upon their return to Westfield Nero and Randy quickly become the toast of the town as they foil crime after crime The culmination of their efforts together is not to be missed This riveting novel is full of action suspense and hope as this unlikely duo takes on the crime threatening to tear their hometown apart Partners In Crime Part 3
