Olde Women:

Older Women in Europe Isabella Paoletti,2022-09-30 This book is about older women's strength freedom tenacity determination resilience independence social and political involvement and in particular it is about re imagining ageing Older women represent the great majority of older people The book describes instances of age and gender discrimination and examples of social inclusion and protagonism of older women in Europe It solicits a change in perspective focusing on the necessary societal changes to make space to older people and older women in particular How is society going to address age and gender discrimination in social and institutional settings How should work settings change to effectively make space to older workers and in particular older women How should the pension system change How could public health systems could provide effective care to older people and be sustainable This edited collection focuses on older women's rights rather than their needs adopting a human rights based approach Preservation of older women's dignity autonomy and security is its central topic that is ensuring that their rights are recognised This collection offers insights valuable to a wide array of human rights activists professionals policymakers and social scientists and older women themselves

Challenges in Older Women's Health Heidi W. Brown,Makeba Williams,Sarina Schrager,2021-06-08 The number of Americans 65 years of age or older is projected to more than double to over 98 million by 2060 making them 24% of the overall population Women constitute more than 50% of this group Most clinicians who provide primary care for older women receive minimal training about their unique health issues and needs during residency however and few resources exist to guide them regarding these issues in practice This book provides user friendly evidence based guidance to manage common challenges in healthcare for women during menopause and beyond filling a huge and growing unmet need for primary care clinicians Edited by a multidisciplinary team with content expert authors from family medicine oncology urogynecology obstetrics and gynecology psychology and more this text provides clinically relevant information about important conditions impacting the health of older women including suggested guidelines for management and helpful resources for patient counselling and care The first half of the book covers general topics such as menopause bone health depression and grief cancer survivorship and obesity The second half focuses on issues below the belt that are difficult to talk about such as incontinence vulvar pathology and sexual health after menopause While there is copious literature about the menopausal transition few resources for clinicians exist about caring for women beyond the 6th decade Challenges in Older Women's Health A primer for clinicians provides focused evidence based information about high yield topics for a too often neglected group of patients

Goddesses in Older Women Jean Shinoda Bolen,2009-10-13 At some point after fifty every woman crosses a threshold into the third phase of her life As she enters this uncharted territory one that is generally uncelebrated in popular culture she can choose to mourn what has gone before or she can embrace the juicy crone years In this celebration of Act Three Jean Shinoda Bolen Jungian analyst and bestselling author of Goddesses in Everywoman names the powerful new energies and potentials or archetypes that come into the psyche at this momentous time suggesting that women getting older have profound and exciting reasons for welcoming the other side of fifty     Rape and Older Women Linda J. Davis, Elaine M. Brody, 1979     No Stopping Us Now Gail Collins, 2019-10-15 The beloved New York Times columnist inspires women to embrace aging and look at it with a new sense of hope in this lively fascinating eye opening look at women and aging in America Parade Magazine You're not getting older you're getting better or so promised the famous 1970s ad for women's hair dye Americans have always had a complicated relationship with aging embrace it deny it defer it and women have been on the front lines of the battle willingly or not In her lively social history of American women and aging acclaimed New York Times columnist Gail Collins illustrates the ways in which age is an arbitrary concept that has swung back and forth over the centuries From Plymouth Rock when a woman was considered marriageable if civil and under fifty years of age to a few generations later when they were quietly retired to elderdom once they had passed the optimum age for reproduction to recent decades when freedom from striving in the workplace and caretaking at home is often celebrated to the first female nominee for president American attitudes towards age have been a moving target Gail Collins gives women reason to expect the best of their golden years     Women's Health United States. Public Health Service. Task Force on Women's Health Issues, 1985     Research on Women's Issues in Transportation, Report of a Conference, 2006     Self-help Support Groups for Older Women Lenard W. Kaye, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time     Needs and Concerns of Older Women New York (State). Task Force on Older Women, 1988     Chimes of Change and Hours Audrey Borenstein, 1983 Encompassing a variety of perspectives on the lives of older women in modern America this book is a rich mosaic drawing on demographic social psychological social historical economic and gerontological data and incorporating transcripts of oral histories interviews with women artists fiction and essays by and about women in the second half of their lives autobiographies diaries journals letters and other sources     Women Still at Work Elizabeth F. Fideler, 2012-06-25 The fastest growing segment of the workforce is women age sixty five and older Women Still at Work draws on national survey data and in depth interviews to show the many reasons why women are working well past the traditional retirement age The book is filled with profiles of real working women with a focus on women in the professional workforce     Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2007    Federal Prisons Journal ,1992    Older Women in Poverty

Amanda Smith Barusch,1994 All women regardless of race face a greater risk of poverty in their later years than elderly men chiefly as a result of social biases and the failure of public policy In this volume the author presents her findings from an extensive study of low income older women from around the country and features the detailed life stories of seven selected women In examining central aspects of the respondents private lives the author describes the impact of poverty on self concept daily coping strategies marriage and caregiving This text offers recommendations for policy changes that are desperately needed to prevent and to ameliorate poverty among older women and examines the role of older women in social reform Academics students policymakers researchers and professionals in sociology and social gerontology will find this volume a valuable resource BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Rural Development Perspectives ,1995    When Older Women Speak Ester Carolina Apesoa-Varano,Charles Varano,2020-03-17 Studying the interaction of gender class race ethnicity and aging in the depression experience of older women provides a unique opportunity to understand how aging plays a significant role in shaping conceptions of self and emotional health trajectories for women Based on author interviews with mostly working class depressed elderly women this book contributes to the theoretical understanding of femininity and aging and the practical implications for policy and effective health care treatment Cultivating an alternative self can reduce older women's suffering and provide the emotional resources to change their inner worlds even if the outer world stretches beyond their control Depression affects women twice as often as men Up to 40 percent of older adults respond poorly to depression treatment and depression is linked to higher morbidity and mortality rates and cognitive decline Older adults with depression have 50 percent higher health care costs yet depression is accurately recognized in less than one half of older adults in primary care While older men are more likely to die by suicide older women are two to three times more likely to attempt suicide and depression is the best predictor of suicide in older adults Latina and African American women have lower rates of depression treatment compared to non minority women From issues of health care access to the stigma of depression older Latinas and African American women are at an increased risk for untreated depression This book seeks to address some of the significant gaps in our knowledge of late life depression in women especially in ethnic minorities ranging from detection and efficacy of depression treatment to informal influences e g family on formal depression care seeking    Wild Old Women Unleashed, (B&W Version) Angela Treat Lyon,2020-04-09 Are You A Woman Over 50 If you are this book is for you You know how some people think of women over 50 as over the hill dying broken alone sad sick weak even deranged Surprise Women over 50 are feeling freshly imbued with brilliant energy and new life It's high time to consider older women as wise powerful creative people who have huge value in our world You'll see how perceiving women especially older women in a negative light affects everyone for the worse and how to change that This book is to inspire you to stop letting yourself fade away so you can take your power back and
