Mental Health Problems in Old Age Brian Gearing, Malcolm L. Johnson, Malcolm Johnson, Tom Heller, 1988-05-23 This multi disciplinary and multi occupational work contains newly commissioned material and previously unpublished articles on mental health disorders that afflict the aged. Written to promote an awareness of the nature of mental health disorders found in older people, it also discusses the pros and cons of current community health policies.

Man's Quest for Social Guidance Howard Washington Odum, 1927

Re-evaluating Residential Care Sheila M. Peace, Leonie A. Kellaher, Dianne M. Willcocks, 1997 The authors of this timely book set out to answer this pressing question and offer an explanation as to what makes older people give up their homes.

Residential care homes provide accommodation for over 300 000 older people in the UK the majority of whom are in their mid eighties More than a quarter of the population over eighty five live in institutional settings most of them in residential care homes

A Crucial Issue in Social Work Practice National Conference on Social Welfare,1966 Good Practice in the Education and Training of Older Adults A. Withnall,Keith A. Percy,1994 The aims of this book are to review and analyse the burgeoning literature on older people s education training and learning activity to identify and document good practice through a review of selected British case studies drawn from a statutory voluntary and commercial fields and to evaluate both literature and the findings of the case studies in order to offer a fresh perspective on good practice in this important area The book is divided into four parts philosophy and practice participation and provision case studies and redefining good practice This book will be of value to anyone interested in learning in later life including learners themselves Foundations of Social Work Practice in the Field of Aging Roberta Rubin Greene,2007 The aging of societies is a global phenomenon In the United States alone the life expectancy for both men and women will continue to increase over the next few decades and with that a population explosion of older adults The dramatic increase in the number and diversity of older adults elevates the visibility of gerontological matters As a result social work practice is becoming more multigenerational thereby demanding social workers regardless of their professional endeavors to be equipped with the most innovative theories and practices to serve older adults and their families This comprehensive text spans the new knowledge and skills required in direct practice areas group work and macro practice It also outlines the Geriatric Social Work Competencies as developed by social work educators necessary to serve the older adult population and suggests how these competencies can be integrated into foundation curriculum Social work educators students practitioners administrators and policymakers will find updated useful information in this text regarding assessment tools cultural influences evidence based practices intervention techniques theoretical examples Individuals are living longer and healthier lives in part because of the extraordinary growth of biomedical knowledge and public health initiatives The confluence of the rapid and large increase of the older population and the exponential increase in the dissemination of knowledge create an imperative for social workers to employ the most recent knowledge in their practice with people living increasingly long lives JoAnn Damron Rodriguez Department of Social Welfare University of California Los Angeles Social Work Practice with the Elderly Michael J. Holosko,Marvin D. Feit,1996 Annals of Medical Practice ,1909 Home Health Nursing Practice Robyn Rice,1996 Rice presents current guidelines for managing complex patient care in the home environment Integrating patient education a key aspect of care the book thoroughly examines the conditions most frequently encountered by the home health nurse Core Collection of Medical Books and Journals 2001 Howard Hague,2000 Outlook and Independent ,1921
