On Protracted War:

On Protracted War Mao Tse-Tung, 1967-01-01 Mao on Warfare Zedong Mao, 2013 Mao on Warfare compiles Mao Zedong's principal works on martial theory including On Guerrilla Warfare and On Protracted War. In On Guerrilla Warfare Mao explores China's long history of guerrilla warfare beginning with the Chu and Han dynasties. Mao relates the expansion in the theories, tactics, and strategies of guerrilla warfare as practiced by the People's Liberation Army in the Chinese Civil War. In On Protracted War Mao analyzes the fundamental questions of warfare from the standpoint of dialectical materialism. Mao used On Protracted War to explain tactics developed in World War II and instrumental in China's campaigns against the Japanese occupation. On Protracted War also reviews strategies Mao employed in the Chinese Civil War. Mao on Warfare is of primary interest to military experts and scholars as well as to casual readers with an interest in warfare in general and Chinese martial history in particular.

charisma and the Western bloc s need to study China Through an objective evaluation of extensive Chinese archives the author showcases and discussed the influence of Mao Zedong s thoughts on the world China at War Hans van de Ven,2018-02-12 China s mid twentieth century wars pose extraordinary interpretive challenges The issue is not just that the Chinese fought for such a long time from the Marco Polo Bridge Incident of July 1937 until the close of the Korean War in 1953 across such vast territory As Hans van de Ven explains the greatest puzzles lie in understanding China s simultaneous external and internal wars Much is at stake politically in how this story is told Today in its official history and public commemorations the People s Republic asserts Chinese unity against Japan during World War II But this overwrites the era s stark divisions between Communists and Nationalists increasingly erasing the civil war from memory Van de Ven argues that the war with Japan the civil war and its aftermath were in fact of a piece a singular process of conflict and political change Reintegrating the Communist uprising with the Sino Japanese War he shows how the Communists took advantage of wartime to increase their appeal how fissures between the Nationalists and Communists affected anti Japanese resistance and how the fractious coalition fostered conditions for revolution In the process the Chinese invented an influential paradigm of war wherein the Clausewitzian model of total war between well defined interstate enemies gave way to murky campaigns of national liberation involving diverse domestic and outside belligerents This history disappears when the realities of China s mid century conflicts are stripped from public view China at War recovers them Wartime Culture in Guilin, 1938-1944 Pingchao Zhu,2015-10-30 This book examines the development of wartime culture in the city of Guilin Guangxi Province in southwestern China during a major part of the country s war of resistance against Japanese invasion between 1938 and 1944 This study challenges existing historiography on China s wartime culture at three levels First the Guangxi warlord group played a crucial role in maintaining regional security providing a liberalized political environment for wartime cultural activities and facilitating wartime nationalist communist relations at both local and national levels Second wartime culture was more literary than political and it reflected a powerful intellectual vigor that was an indispensable component of China s war efforts Intellectuals of different social and political backgrounds were their own organic selves feeling no pressure to come to intellectual consensus in literary production Third wartime culture was characterized by the active participation of many international groups political organizations and foreign individuals The literary works produced in Guilin between 1938 and 1944 clearly reflected a combination of Chinese national and international anti fascist and anti military sentiment Chinese literary masterpieces were translated into different foreign languages and noted foreign literature and political works were introduced to Chinese audiences through various cultural and political exchange programs in the city On Protracted War and Selected Works Zedong Mao,1966 Chinese Warfighting Mark A.
