On All Fronts Czechoslovaks In World War II:

On All Fronts Lewis M. White,1991 Eyewitness accounts from Czechoslovak participation in World War II unavailable before the establishment of the present democratic regime demonstrate the sizeable Czech contribution to the Allied victory

On All Fronts Lewis M. White,1995 Hitler and Czechoslovakia in World War II Patrick Crowhurst,2013-10-24 The invasion of Czechoslovakia by Nazi Germany in March 1939 helped to precipitate Europe's descent into World War II six months later. The move supposedly to protect the Sudeten Germans shocked many in Europe who saw it as a clear statement of intent by Hitler. Here Patrick Crowhurst argues that occupation of the Sudetenland and the Czech lands was also crucial to the Nazi war machine. The armaments factories and raw materials that Hitler seized accelerated Germany's capabilities. Czech tanks would prove crucial in the Ardennes and as the Wehrmacht fought at Stalingrad. Armaments Minister Albert Speer was corralling Czech industrial machinery to produce engines, aircraft and equipment in support. In addition new Slovakian and Czech primary material are used to give a new in-depth account of the German reaction to the assassination of Reinhardt Heydrich on the streets of Prague in June 1942. The recriminations were brutal and dovetailed with Hitler's plans for the genocide of Czech Jewry. This is a new side of the History of Nazi Europe and argues for the centrality of the Czech occupation in the overall narrative of World War II.

The Hitler Kiss Radomir Luza,2017-12-15 Luza's narrative gives a panoramic picture of the resistance and makes palpable the terror of living in attics, sheds and holes dug in the woods, constantly hunted and nearly snared by betrayals and Gestapo raids. In courageously intimate terms he reflects on his relationship with his stern father whom Luza worshipped from afar until sharing rat infested barns brought the consummate general and intellectual son closer together.

Freedom in the Air Hamish Ross,2007-11-12 Deals with a little known aspect of the war alongside the moving story of one man's relationship with a very special animal. Sqn Ldr Paul Scott, Spirit of the Air. This biography tells of the life of Vclav Robert Bozdík, a Czech airman who escaped from the Nazi invasion, fought with the French and finally arrived in Britain to fly as an air gunner with the RAF during World War II. He returned to his homeland after World War II but escaped back to the UK again when the communists gained control. Again he joined the RAF and rose to the rank of Warrant Officer. The unique part of this is that from his time in France throughout World War II and until halfway through his second tour with the RAF, Bozdík was inseparable from his Alsatian dog, Antis, who became famous and was awarded a dog equivalent to the VC. Antis flew with his owner on many bomber raids, became the squadron mascot and was officially a serving RAF dog He played an amazing part in the second escape from the Czech communist regime when Bozd ch was lucky to make it over the border to the US zone in Germany The main hero of the book is not Bozd ch himself but his Alsatian Antis This book makes clear the extent of wartime and post war suffering endured by Czechs and others fulfilling their roles in the overall search for freedom Aircraft Owner Pilot This absorbing account of flying in WWII is based on the inseparable bond between man and dog It is a moving story with humor and sadness A Great Read that is Highly Recommended Firetrench On All Fronts Lewis M.
