On Doing Less Harm Western European Alternatives To Incarceration:

On Doing Less Harm David Fogel,1988    On Doing Less Harm David Fogel,1988    The American Prison Francis T. Cullen,Mary K. Stohr,2014 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders The American Prison Imagining a Different Future by Francis T Cullen Cheryl Lero Johnson and Mary K Stohr pulls together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay

World Criminal Justice Systems Richard J. Terrill,2015-10-30

World Criminal Justice Systems Ninth Edition provides an understanding of major world criminal justice systems by discussing and comparing the systems of six of the world's countries each representative of a different type of legal system An additional chapter on Islamic law uses three examples to illustrate the range of practice within Sharia Political historical organizational procedural and critical issues confronting the justice systems are explained and analyzed Each chapter contains material on government police judiciary law corrections juvenile justice and other critical issues The ninth edition features an introduction directing students to the resources they need to understand comparative criminal justice theory and methodology The chapter on Russia includes consideration of the turmoil in post Soviet successor states and the final chapter on Islamic law examines the current status of criminal justice systems in the Middle East

Correctional Ethics John Kleinig,2017-07-05

Correctional Ethics gathers the most prominent contributions to this burgeoning field ranging from the philosophy of punishment through to ethical appraisals of incarceration the professional responsibilities of prison personnel and formative work in restorative justice In addition it provides an annotated research agenda to help shape the development of a comprehensive correctional ethic For those working in correctional ethics this collection provides an essential resource

Alternatives to Imprisonment in Comparative Perspective Uglješa Zvekić,Anna Alvazzi del Frate,1994    Harm in American Penology Todd R. Clear,1994 This book analyzes the sources and results of the fourfold increase in the US correctional population since 1970 It considers the following themes the value of punitiveness defined as penal harm research on crime and criminals concerns about victims of crime and concerns about community safety It also analyzes the relationship between social problems such as poverty and crime and penal policy during the twenty year period of penal expansion The book concludes that the growth in corrections was not caused by crime nor has it reduced crime and that proposals for expanding incarceration cannot be justified

International Journal of Contemporary Sociology ,1995
