On Escape De Levasion:

The Oxford Handbook of Levinas Michael L. Morgan, 2019-04-10 Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 emerged as an influential philosophical voice in the final decades of the twentieth century and his reputation has continued to flourish and increase in our own day His central themes the primacy of the ethical and the core of ethics as our responsibility to and for others speak to readers from a host of disciplines and perspectives However his writings and thought are challenging and difficult The Oxford Handbook of Levinas contains essays that aim to clarify and engage Levinas and his writings in a number of ways Some focus on central themes of his work others on the ways in which he read and was influenced by figures from Plato Hobbes Descartes and Kant to Blanchot Husserl Heidegger and Derrida And there are essays on how his thinking has been appropriated in moral and political thought psychology film criticism and more and on the relation between his thinking and religious themes and traditions Finally several essays deal primarily with how readers have criticized him and found him wanting The volume exposes and explores both the depth of Levinas's philosophical work and the range of applications to which it has been put with special attention to clarifying why his interests in the human condition the crisis of civilization the centrality and character of ethics and morality and the very meaning of human experience should be of interest to the widest range of readers

The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier, 2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum's spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum's diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum's path to spiritual freedom

Relations AnnKatrin Jonsson, 2006 In Relations AnnKatrin Jonsson develops a new understanding of ethics and subjectivity within high modernism The author analyzes Joyce's Ulysses Woolf's The Waves and Barnes's Nightwood as narratives that depict a subject turning towards the other and the world a movement that seriously questions the sovereignty of the subject as cogito instead opening up for otherness excess and indeterminacy The author points to convergences between a phenomenological manner of thinking found in modernist literature and the notion of an ethics and an ethical subjectivity a subject who exists in an inescapable relation with the world As the novels acknowledge otherness there is a rebound effect on the narrative its structure and style otherness transforms the narrative itself In this way Ulysses The Waves and Nightwood indicate a desire to escape from a notion of the subject that contains and controls the world and the other By indicating ways in which new conceptions of ethics are made possible within modernism the author also shows that there are within modernism both literary and philosophical texts whose understanding and representation of subjectivity already express and establish crucial aspects of the discourse on ethics and ethical subjectivity that characterize recent continental philosophy and cultural theory

Life-Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema, 2022-01-14 In Life Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema brings the insights of her radical formalism to bear on supremely risky terrain the ethical extremes of horror and love Through close readings of works of film literature and philosophy she explores how diagrams grids charts lists abecedaria toroids tempos patterns colors negative space lengths increments and thresholds attest to formal logics of torture and cruelty violence and finitude friendship and eros debt and care Beginning with a wholesale rethinking of the affect of horror orienting it away from entrenched models of feeling toward impersonal schemes and structures Brinkema moves outward to consider the relation between objects and affects humiliation and metaphysics genre and the general bodily destruction and aesthetic generation geometry and scenography hatred and value love and measurement and ultimately the tensions hazards and speculative promise of formalism itself Replete with etymological meditations performative typography and lyrical digressions Life Destroying Diagrams is at once a model of reading without guarantee and a series of generative experiments in the writing of aesthetic theory

Works for Works, Book 1 Gavin Keeney, 2022 Works for Works Book 1 Useless Beauty tackles legacy issues of intellectual property rights IPR in artistic production and academic scholarship and proposes a category or class of works that has no relation to IPR nor to proprietary regimes of copyright and academic privilege Keeney's book is a structuralist argument for establishing new forms of artistic scholarship that operate in direct opposition to established norms in both the art world and neoliberal academia and is also rigorously contextualized within past and present day arguments for and against patrimonial and paternalistic avant garde and normative forms of censure and conformity across cultural production Works for Works Book 1 Useless Beauty privileges an iterative generative and aleatory methodology for artistic scholarship with transmedia proposed as a tutelary form of editioning works against the dictates of the art academic complex This focus on generativity also invokes the dialectical operations historically associated with past avant gardes as they have negotiated an elective nihilism as an avenue for exiting established and authorized forms of conceptual and intellectual inquiry in the Arts and Humanities Gavin Keeney is Director of Agence X founded in New York New York in 2007 He completed a research doctorate in Architecture at Deakin University Australia in 2014 on the subject of Visual Agency in Art and Architecture His publications include Dossier Chris Marker The Suffering Image Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2012 Knowledge Spirit Law Book 1 Radical Scholarship punctum 2015 and Knowledge Spirit Law Book 2 The Anti capitalist Sublime punctum 2017 He has taught and lectured in architecture schools in the US England Slovenia Australia and India

Self and Other: Essays in Continental Philosophy of Religion Eugene Thomas Long, 2007-04-11 The essays in this volume focus on some of the topics that are shaping recent continental philosophy of religion These primary topics include self and other evil and suffering religion and society and the relation between philosophy and theology The articles are by an international group of leading contributors to recent continental philosophy of religion From Guilt to Shame Ruth Leys, 2009-01-10 Why has shame recently displaced guilt as a dominant emotional reference in the West After the Holocaust survivors often reported feeling guilty for living when so many others had died and in the 1960s psychoanalysts and psychiatrists in the United States helped make survivor guilt a defining feature of the survivor syndrome Yet the idea of survivor guilt has always caused trouble largely because it appears to imply that by unconsciously identifying with the perpetrator victims psychically collude with power In From Guilt to Shame Ruth Leys has written the first genealogical critical study of the vicissitudes of the concept of survivor guilt and the momentous but largely unrecognized significance of guilt's replacement by shame Ultimately Leys challenges the theoretical and empirical validity of the shame theory proposed by figures such as Silvan Tomkins Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and Giorgio Agamben demonstrating that while the notion of survivor guilt has depended on an intentionalist framework shame theorists share a problematic commitment to interpreting the emotions including shame in antiintentionalist and materialist terms Derrida and Disinterest Sean Gaston, 2005-05-24 This is a monograph investigating the idea and role of disinterest as it occurs in continental philosophy
