On Jack Smith's Flaming Creatures:

Flaming Creature Edward Leffingwell, Carole Kismaric, Marvin Heiferman, 1997 Creator of the notorious film Flaming Creatures Jack Smith astonished an international audience with his work in film photography theater performance and the written word Example and antagonist to generations of artists and performers revered by Robert Wilson denounced by Kenneth Anger imitated by Andy Warhol Jack Smith is ready for his close up on location in the streets and ruins of the world This volume recognizes Smith's seminal contributions and the need for a significant rethinking of the history of the American avant garde On Jack Smith's Flaming Creatures (and Other Secret-flix of Cinemaroc) J. Hoberman, 2001 Reviled, rioted over and banned as pornographic even as it was recognized by many as an unprecedented visionary masterpiece Jack Smith's Flaming Creatures is one of the most important and influential underground movies ever released in America J Hoberman's monograph details the creative making and legal unmaking of this extraordinary film a source of inspiration for artists as disparate as Andy Warhol Federico Fellini and John Waters Described by its maker as a comedy set in a haunted music studio the story of Flaming Creatures is here augmented with a dossier of personal recollections relevant documents and remarkable previously unpublished on set photographs by Norman Solomon Expanding on notes originally prepared for the 1997 retrospective on Jack Smith at the American Museum of the Moving Image the monograph includes further material on his unfinished features Normal Love and No President as well as shorter film fragments Flaming Creature Jack Smith Edward Leffingwell, 1998 The Palgrave Handbook of Experimental Cinema Kim Knowles, Jonathan Walley, 2024-09-04 This book is a collection of newly commissioned essays by established and emerging scholars that maps out the current landscape of experimental cinema studies and sets agendas for future work in the field Introducing new critical methodologies and calling overdue attention to neglected artists regions and topics the contributions to this volume reassess and reassert experimental cinema as a site of formal exploration and interrogation as well as resistance to institutional political and social norms This collection articulates what it means for experimental cinema to be these things in the contemporary moment staking out new directions in thinking about the subject not only as a growing sub field of cinema studies but as an artistic and scholarly tradition in dialogue with art history visual culture philosophy and the sciences The contributions reflect a diversity of voices and perspectives weaving together theoretical poetic and personal modes of writing and traversing questions of form emotion materiality nationality postcoloniality the body and ecology Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture John Powers, 2023 The Bolex camera 16mm reversal film stocks commercial film laboratories and low budget optical printers were the small gauge media technologies that provided the infrastructure for experimental filmmaking at the height of its cultural impact Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture examines how the avant garde embraced these material resources and invested them with meanings and values adjacent to those of semiprofessional film culture By reasserting the physicality of the body in making time lapse and kinesthetic sequences with the Bolex filmmakers conversed with other art forms and integrated broader spheres of humanistic and scientific inquiry into their artistic process Drawing from the photographic qualities of stocks such as Tri X and Kodachrome they discovered pliant metaphors that allowed them to connect their artistic practice to metaphysics spiritualism and Hollywood excess By framing film labs as mystical or adversarial they cultivated an oppositionality that valorized control over the artistic process And by using the optical printer as a tool for excavating latent meaning out of found footage they posited the reworking of images as fundamental to the exploration of personal and cultural identity Providing a wealth of new detail about the making of canonized avant garde classics by such luminaries as Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith and Stan Brakhage as well as rediscovering works from overlooked artists such as Chick Strand Amy Halpern and Gunvor Nelson

Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture uses technology as a lens for examining the process of making where ideas come from how they are put into practice and how arguments about those ideas foster cultural and artistic commitments and communities

From Goodwill to Grunge Jennifer Le Zotte, 2017-02-02 In this surprising new look at how clothing style and commerce came together to change American culture Jennifer Le Zotte examines how secondhand goods sold at thrift stores flea markets and garage sales came to be both profitable and culturally influential Initially selling used goods in the United States was seen as a questionable enterprise focused largely on the poor But as the twentieth century progressed multimillion dollar businesses like Goodwill Industries developed catering not only to the needy but increasingly to well off customers looking to make a statement Le Zotte traces the origins and meanings of secondhand style and explores how buying pre owned goods went from a signifier of poverty to a declaration of rebellion Considering buyers and sellers from across the political and economic spectrum Le Zotte shows how conservative and progressive social activists from religious and business leaders to anti Vietnam protesters and drag queens shrewdly used the exchange of secondhand goods for economic and political ends At the same time artists and performers from Marcel Duchamp and Fanny Brice to Janis Joplin and Kurt Cobain all helped make secondhand style a visual marker for youth in revolt     Horizontal together Paisid Aramphongphan,2021-05-11 Horizontal together tells the story of 1960s art and queer culture in New York through the overlapping circles of Andy Warhol underground filmmaker Jack Smith and experimental dance star Fred Herko Taking a pioneering approach to this intersecting cultural milieu the book uses a unique methodology that draws on queer theory dance studies and the analysis of movement deportment and gesture to look anew at familiar artists and artworks but also to bring to light queer artistic figures key cultural contributions to the 1960s New York art world Illustrated with rarely published images and written in clear and fluid prose Horizontal together will appeal to specialists and general readers interested in the study of modern and contemporary art dance and queer history

Luminous Creatures J. David Conner,2001     Flaming Creatures Constantine Verevis,2019-11-26 Banned soon after its first midnight screenings the prints seized and the organizers arrested Jack Smith s incendiary Flaming Creatures 1963 quickly became a cause c l bre of the New York underground Championed and defended by Jonas Mekas and Susan Sontag among others the film wildly and gleefully transgresses nearly every norm of Hollywood morality and aesthetics In a surreal and visually dense series of episodes the titular creatures reenact scenes drawn from the collective cinematic unconscious playing on mainstream film culture s moral code in a way that is at once a love letter to classical Hollywood and a searing send up of its absurdities Tracing the film s production and reception history Constantine Verevis argues that it embodies a unique type of cinematic rewriting one that combines Smith s multifaceted artistic work with exotic fragments drawn from the cinematic past This study of Smith s magnum opus explores its status as a cult film that appropriates the visual texture erotic nuance and overt fabrication of old Hollywood exoticism     Film and Video Richard Kostelanetz,2005 American anarchist critic Richard Kostelanetz remains a prolific force and a unique independent voice This book presents a selections of his writings on film and video Representing radical alternatives he writes with uncommon perception not only about familiar issues but also about films customarily forgotten and always with his customary clarity Also included are prefaces and transcripts from his own films and videos     Susan Sontag Liam Kennedy,1995 Susan Sontag has been a major figure in American intellectual life for more than 30 years This study presents Sontag as a modernist writer intellectual who has produced a distinctive critical perspective on such diverse subjects as camp pornographic literature fascist aesthetics photography AIDS and revolution     Blam! the Explosion of Pop, Minimalism, and Performance, 1958-1964 Barbara Haskell,John G. The present catalogue is a retrospective with a difference Taking the work of two contemporary American artists Christopher Wool and Sharon Lockhart it looks back at the work of their predecessors as painters and filmmakers from earlier generations The key figure of these reflections is Andy Warhol who both revolutionized painting as a medium and made a major contribution to the development of film His work spans both Barnett Newman s access to the materiality of pictures and the artistic exploitation of media images and their apparent reality with which Bruce Conner achieved such brilliant effects The publication contains an extensive complex panorama of art historical references combined with contemporary historical and political analyses Affinities and antitheses within the interrelationships substance and formal idioms of the five artists involved are explored in a variety of ways Along with illustrations of the paintings exhibited and films screened the catalogue thus contains articles by Giuliana Bruno Achim Hochd rfer Wolfram Pichler Christian H ller Hans Dieter Hubert Peter Pakesch Ferdinand Schmatz Marc Siegel and Ian White      The Encyclopedia of American Independent Filmmaking Vincent LoBrutto, 2002-12-30 Independent filmmaking is often regarded as a relatively recent phenomenon yet the so called movement has actually existed as long as movies themselves In this indispensable single volume reference work LoBrutto surveys the subject from cinema s inception through the 21st century Written in an accessible style and including biographical critical factual and bibliographical information this remarkable source encompasses films and filmmakers operating independently from the studio system in concept financing production and distribution Such a broad interpretation of independent filmmaking separates it from that of commercial Hollywood a conglomerate existing to create product rather than support personal artistic vision Many of the entries subjects have rarely been investigated and studied yet knowledge of independent filmmaking is vital to any understanding the cinematic medium making this an essential book for any library s film shelves      ARTnews ,1998      C Magazine ,1998
