On Modesty:

On Modesty Tertullian, 2018-08-10 Modesty the flower of manners the honor of our bodies the grace of the sexes the integrity of the blood the guarantee of our race the basis of sanctity the pre indication of every good disposition rare though it is and not easily perfected and scarce ever retained in perpetuity will yet up to a certain point linger in the world if nature shall have laid the preliminary groundwork of it discipline persuaded to it censorial rigor curbed its excesses on the hypothesis that is that every mental good quality is the result either of birth or else of training or else of external compulsion But as the conquering power of things evil is on the increase which is the characteristic of the last times things good are now not allowed either to be born so corrupted are the seminal principles or to be trained so deserted are studies nor to be enforced so disarmed are the laws In fact the modesty of which we are now beginning to treat is by this time grown so obsolete that it is not the abjuration but the moderation of the appetites which modesty is believed to be and he is held to be chaste enough who has not been too chaste But let the world's modesty see to itself together with the world itself together with its inherent nature if it was wont to originate in birth its study if in training its servitude if in compulsion except that it had been even more unhappy if it had remained only to prove fruitless in that it had not been in God's household that its activities had been exercised

Traditional Christian Ethics David W. T. Brattston, 2014 Traditional Christian Ethics features two exhaustive alphabetical lists of affirmative commandments and prohibitions from the earliest Christian ethics as found in writers before the mass apostasy of 249 251 AD The affirmatives or positives list consists of what Christians are were commanded or encouraged to do The other list is of negatives or prohibitions i e what Christians are were discouraged from doing similarly arranged The source material for the work encompasses far more than the ten volume Ante Nicene Fathers edited by Roberts and Donaldson It also draws from all writings of the period Christian Jewish and pagan available in English or French translation plus a few Latin translations Some translations have been published only in scholarly journals and some only in the twenty first century Volumes Two and Three form a single exhaustive alphabetical list of affirmative commandments or precepts including mental attitudes i e what Christian ethics commanded or encouraged according to writers on Christian ethics before 250 AD Using earlier drafts of this set of books Dr Brattston's articles and booklets synthesizing early and contemporary Christianity have been published by a wide variety of denominations and ministries in every major English speaking country He hopes readers will use them as a starting point for writing articles
