On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1954      On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1962      On Philosophical Style B. Blanshard, 1998-11-01 Originally given in 1953 as the Adamson Lecture at Manchester University On Philosophical Style has become the classic presentation of the thesis that profundity clarity are not opposed philosophical virtues but rather required companions Blanshard begins with the question Why is it that philosophers of great perception sometimes confess a failure to comprehend certain of their colleagues And he ends with the assertion that the problem of style is not a problem of words sentences merely but of being the right kind of mind In between there is much offered in fine style short compass for those who both write read philosophy      On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1967      On Philosophical Style Virpi Lehtinen, 2007 Abstract Irigaray and Le Duff diagnose the problem of woman and philosophy in terms of love The differing solutions to the problem can be found in their styles Irigaray's style is loving and dialogic transforming the inherent structure of love and reminding us of the traditional feminine position defined by men Le Duff's style is critical and pluralistic and relates to her perception of the feminine way of philosophical writing These styles take into account the undervaluation of the feminine in the apparently neutral practices of philosophizing and surpass the traditional or unreflected notions of the feminine style Ultimately the consciously subjective styles with the inherent aims of self reflectivity and openness for other persons and texts prove necessary when striving for truth and objectivity Thus Le Duff and Irigaray question the standard notion of philosophical style as neutral non style      The Anatomy of Philosophical Style Berel Lang, 1990-01      The Question of Style in Philosophy and the Arts Caroline van Eck, James McAllister, Renée van de Vall, 1995-05-11 Essays examining the historical transition in our perception of the arts and philosophy      The Philosophical Style Sister M. Reynalde, 1923      Substantive Perspectivism: An Essay on Philosophical Concern with Truth Bo Mou, 2009-09-16 I have been thinking about the philosophical issue of truth for more than two decades It is one of several fascinating philosophical issues that motivated me to change my primary reflective interest to philosophy after receiving BS in mathematics in 1982 Some serious academic work in this connection started around the late eighties when I translated into Chinese a dozen of Donald Davidson's representative essays on truth and meaning and when I assumed translator for Adam Morton who gave a series of lectures on the issue in Beijing 1988 which was co sponsored by my then institution Institute of Philosophy Chinese Academy of Social Science I have loved the issue both for its own sake as one specific major issue in the philosophy of language and metaphysics and for the sake of its significant involvement in many philosophical issues in different subjects of philosophy Having been attracted to the analytic approach I was then interested in looking at the issue both from the points of view of classical Chinese philosophy and Marxist philosophy two major styles or frameworks of doing philosophy during that time in China and from the point of view of contemporary analytic philosophy which was then less recognized in the Chinese philosophical circle      Philosophy and the Art of Writing Berel Lang, 1983      Arresting Language Peter David

Fenves,2001 Concentrating on both widely known and seldom read texts from a variety of philosophers writers and critics from Leibniz and Mendelssohn through Kleist and Hebel to Benjamin and Irigaray the book analyzes the genesis and structure of interruption a topic of growing interest to contemporary literary studies continental philosophy legal studies and theological reflection      On Actions, Products and Other Topics in Philosophy Kazimierz Twardowski,1999 Kazimierz Twardowski 20 10 1866 Vienna 11 02 1938 Lvov is most commonly known as the teacher of great philosophers and the founder of the Lvov Warsaw School As a philosopher however he is primarily remembered for his famous comparison of the contents and objects of various kinds of representations a comparison that remains enshrined in European thought In fact he attained important results in many other branches of philosophy as well For instance in descriptive ontology he laid the foundations for the modern theory of formal structure of objects and he introduced the theoretically fruitful pair of terms action product In epistemology he developed a profound analysis of the notion and criteria of truth and he provided a forceful account of the errors underlying relativist theories of truth In methodology he drew an explicit distinction between the processes of discovering systematising and grounding in science and he offered accurate descriptions of the nature of psychology and other humanities In philosophical logic he offered decisive arguments on behalf of the idiogenetic conception of judgement and he improved the traditional typology of adjectives These achievements are of significance that is not only historical Kazimierz Twardowski s work formulated in plain precise language are instructive and inspiring for contemporary students of philosophy      Kierkegaard's Influence on Philosophy Jon Bartley Stewart,2012 Tome III traces Kierkegaard s influence on Anglophone philosophy It has long been thought that Kierkegaard played no role in this tradition which for years was dominated by analytic philosophy In this environment it was common to dismiss Kierkegaard along with the then current European philosophers who were influenced by him However a closer look reveals that in fact there were several thinkers in the US Canada and Great Britain who were inspired by Kierkegaard even during the heyday of analytic philosophy Current thinking now suggests that Kierkegaard has made some serious inroads into mainstream Anglophone philosophy with many authors seeking inspiration in his works for current discussions concerning ethics personal identity philosophy of religion and philosophical anthropology      A Survey of English Literature 1780-1880 Oliver Elton,1920      Historical Representation F.
