On Receiving The First Aspen Award:

On Receiving the First Aspen Award Benjamin Britten, 1964      On Receiving the First Aspen Award Benjamin Britten, 1978      Benjamin Britten Peter John Hodgson, 1996 This work constitutes the largest and most comprehensive research guide ever published about Benjamin Britten Entries survey the most significant published materials relating to the composer including bibliographies catalogs letters and documents conference reports biographies and studies of Britten s music      On Music Benjamin Britten, 2003 Benjamin Britten was a most reluctant public speaker Yet his contributions were without doubt a major factor in the transformation during his lifetime of the structure of the art music industry This book by bringing together all his published articles unpublished speeches drafts and transcriptions of numerous radio interviews explores the paradox of a reluctant yet influential cultural commentator artist and humanist Whether talking about his own music about the role of the artist in society about music criticism or wading into a debate on Soviet ideology at the height of the cold war Britten always gave a performance which reinforced the notion of a private man who nonetheless saw the importance of public disclosure      Benjamin Britten Studies Vicki P. Stroeher, Justin Vickers, 2017 The shock of exile Paul Kildea Britten Paul Bunyan and American ness Vicki P Stroeher Collaborating with Corwin CBS and the BBC Jenny Doctor An empire built on shingle Justin Vickers Save me from those suffering boys Byron Adams Britten s and Pears s Beloved Louis Niebur Notes of unbelonging Lloyd Whitesell Take these tokens that you may feel us near Colleen Renihan Traces of N Kevin Salfen Britten and the augmented sixth Christopher Mark Quickenings of the heart Philip Rupprecht Reviving Paul Bunyan Danielle Ward Griffin Striking a compromise Thornton Miller From Boosey Hawkes to Faber Music Nicholas Clark The man himself Lucy Walker Epilogue Vicki P Stroeher and Justin Vickers      Beyond Britten Peter Wiegold, Ghislaine Kenyon, 2015 With his Aspen award lecture 1964 Benjamin Britten expressed a unique commitment to community and place This book revisits this seminal lecture but then uses it as a starting point of reflection inviting leading composers producers and writers to consider the role of the composer in the community in Britain in the last fifty years Colin Matthews Jonathan Reekie and John Barber reflect on Britten s aspirations as a composer and the impact of his legacy and Gillian Moore surveys the ideals of composers since the 1960s Eugene Skeef and Tommy Pearson discuss the influence of the London Sinfonietta while Katie Tearle reviews the tradition of community opera at Glyndebourne Nigel Osborne and Judith Webster explore the role of music as therapy and James Redwood Amoret Abis Sean Gregory and Douglas Mitchell look at music in the classroom and creative workshops John Sloboda Detta Danford and Natasha Zielazinski discuss collaboration in music making and ways of facilitating exchanges between the composer and the audience while Christopher Fox and Howard Skempton examine the role of modernism and the use of other radical techniques to stimulate new dialogues between composer and community Peter Wiegold and Amoret Abis interview Sir Harrison Birtwistle John Woolrich and Phillip Cashian and Wiegold discusses his formative experiences in encountering music making in other cultures All of these approaches to the role and identity of the composer throw a different light on how we address the composer and the community the varied sometimes contradictory motivations of composers the role of music in enhancing lives the concept of outreach and the different ways this is pursued and finally the meaning of community Underpinning each are genuine questions about the relationship of arts to society This book will appeal not only to composers performers and practitioners of contemporary music but to anyone interested in the changes in twentieth century music practice music in education and the role of music and the arts in the wider community and society PETER WIEGOLD is a composer conductor and the director of Club In gales and the Institute of Composing He is a Research Professor of Music at Brunel University and also director of the Brunel Institute for Contemporary Middle Eastern Music BICMEM GHISLAINE KENYON is an author freelance arts education consultant and curator

Essays on Benjamin Britten from a Centenary Symposium Quinn Patrick Ankrum, David Forrest, Stacey Jocoy, 2017-06-20 Coming to terms with Britten's music is no easy task The complex often contradictory language associated with Britten's style likely stems from his double interest in progressive composition and immediate connection with a broad popular audience an apparent paradox in the splintered musical culture of the 20th century as well as from complicated truths in his own life such as his love for a country that accepted neither his sexuality nor his politics As a result the attempt to describe his music can tell us as much about our own biases and the inadequacies of our analytic tools as it does about the music itself Such audits of our scholarly language and strategies are vital in light of the still murky view we have of twentieth century music This opportunity for academic self reflection is the reason Britten studies such as this book are so important The essays included here challenge assumptions about musical constructs relationships between text and music and the influences of age spirituality and personal relationships on compositional technique Part One offers nine essays originally compiled for a symposium designed to recognize the composer's unique and varied contributions to music The authors include performers musicologists and music theorists and their work will appeal to a wide diversity of readers The topics and methodologies range from archival research and analysis of text and music to theoretical modelling using techniques such as set theory metric theory and prolongation While the papers were initially conceived in isolation from one another the collaborative focus of the symposium created opportunities for authors to expose points of intersection This deliberate reconciliation of lines of inquiry has yielded a more balanced and unified collection of essays than typically found in a simple record of proceedings Furthermore the chapters presented here benefit from the wealth of Britten research produced since the 2013 centenary Part Two provides an account of the symposium performances and lecture recitals that accompanied and enriched the academic presentations The reader will encounter fully the journey taken by symposium presenters participants and attendees by reviewing the concerts lecture recitals and papers in the context of the full symposium program

Annual Report Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, 1964 Program Cleveland Orchestra, 1965 Britten's A Midsummer Night's Dream William H. L. Godsalve, 1995 The opinions of many critics are cited they usually shed favorable light on

Britten's remaking The reader is free and encouraged to indulge in the pleasure of arriving at an independent judgment

A New Aldeburgh Anthology Ariane Bankes, 2009 A book for those drawn back to Aldeburgh year after year for the music writing and arts and to all who care for the landscape the sea and the ongoing life of the Suffolk Coast This is a limited edition The New Aldeburgh Anthology takes its inspiration from Ronald Blythe's classic Aldeburgh Anthology of 1972 which summoned the spirit of Aldeburgh and the Suffolk coast in words and images that resonate still and has proved enduringly popular This new volume brings the story up to date and distils the very essence of the place just at the point when its identity might seem diluted by the accelerating pace of change It speaks for and to the present generation combining young voices with old those of writers and musicians with poets and artists of historians with naturalists architects and ecologists and local people Britten and Pears Aldeburgh Festival lies at the heart of the enterprise Much has changed but the Festival still owes its unique appeal and character to the remarkable history and the inspiration of its founders as well as their strong sense of place Their legacy is re-examined by musicians such as Ian Bostridge Steven Isserlis and Roger Vignoles and music writers James Fenton Paul Kildea Peter Dickinson and Rupert Christiansen Aldeburgh and the east coast of Suffolk is about so much more than music however the poets Andrew Motion Blake Morrison Kevin Crossley Holland and Lavinia Greenlaw and other writers as diverse as Craig Brown and Wilkie Collins have all been inspired by its bright yet haunting atmosphere Maggi Hambling and Alison Wilding are sculptors who have left their mark on the landscape while artists as varied as Sidney Nolan and John Piper Arthur Boyd and Louise Wilson have all derived rich inspiration from it The very landscape and ecology of east Suffolk is on the move too the coastline responding to the vagaries of climate change the traditional ways of life of farming and of fishing giving way to new George Ewart Evans W G Sebald and Richard Mabey are among those who respond to the power of the landscape others to the spell of the sea and the life that has evolved around both is evoked in words and images some of them startling in their intensity Amongst the many contributions the new Anthology contains some of the classic articles from the original including writings by WH Auden George Crabbe Eric Crozier Imogen Holst Norman Scarfe and of course Ronald Blythe himself Published in association with Aldeburgh Music The Opera Quarterly, 1986

Gramophone, 2003 Britten Michael Kennedy, 1993 Part of a series providing comprehensive coverage of the life and works of great composers this revised edition focuses on Benjamin Britten and includes his posthumously published works and new biographical material All the reference sections have been updated including the discography of Britten's performances of his own works It is suitable for musicians students and the general reader alike Encounter Stephen Spender, Irving Kristol, Melvin J. Lasky, 1965 Encounter, 1965 Recorder and Music Magazine, 1963 Guide to the Performing Arts Sara Yancey Belknap, 1960 Composers on Composers John L. Holmes, 1990-01-08 This reference provides a new perspective on the work of music's great composers from Bach to Stravinsky by compiling the comments and criticism offered by other composers such as Mahler Wagner Ravel Tchaikovsky and many others Holmes presents an assessment of composers and musical developments as seen not specifically by the critics but by the composers peers While acknowledging that not all composers were necessarily perceptive critics and that few were able to sufficiently distance themselves from their own and others work to be objective the book offers many insights in the comments made by composers The book is organized into 78 short chapters each focussing on one composer and relating the complimentary or caustic comments made about him by as many as 20 other composers The chapters are arranged alphabetically by composer and presented in a narrative form offering years of birth and death and an introductory sentence along with the quotations The sources of all quotations are documented in a separate note section and an index of the 85 composers quoted and their subjects is also included More than just a book of musical anecdotes this reference will be an important addition to both public and university libraries It will also be of interest to scholars of music criticism and history critics and writers who will find it a useful source of quotes and the general reader interested in music
