Adolescence in Context by award-winning author Tara L. Kuther is a topically oriented text that connects learners to the science shaping our understanding of today's teenagers and young adults. Organized around three core themes—the centrality of context, the importance of research, and the applied value of developmental science—the text presents classic and current research along with foundational theories framed in real-life intersectional contexts such as sex, gender, race, ethnicity, ability, and socioeconomic status. With the new Second Edition, students can expect to gain a deeper understanding of adolescence that they can apply to their personal lives and future careers.

Social Studies Review, 2005 Review Journal of Philosophy & Social Science, 2003

The Media in Your Life Jean Folkerts, Stephen Lacy, 2004

What do reviewers have to say about The Media in Your Life? The text's strengths are on the emphasis on media history, convergence trends, and marketplaces. I also appreciate that the text is written at a sophisticated yet appropriate level for college students. Kim Smith (Iowa State University) The material covered is essential to the understanding of the current student in today's media culture. Jeanne Rollberg (University of Arkansas Little Rock) Authors that forget that they are teachers and try too hard to pretend they're the students' friends don't do their content justice, nor do they model appropriate writing for students to emulate. Folkerts and Lacy don't fall into this trap; they present material credibly, appropriately, and yet readably. Rebecca Lind (University of Illinois Chicago) The overall strengths of Media in Your Life are that it is exhaustively researched and attractively presented. The broad topic of mass media is effectively structured into an accessible format. Randall K. Pugh (Montana State University Billings) The book's emphasis on knowledge students can use in navigating our complex culture is a major strength. Its organization is logical It is well documented It provides a solid summary of most significant media related issues of the day William Lingle Linfield College The authors have a good framework to present an overview of the structure and process of mass communication in the U S The text is visually appealing and will attract students interest Elizabeth Perse University of Delaware Community College Review, 2001 Library & Information Science Abstracts, 2006 School

Psychology Review, 1996 Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat, 2018 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher s description

Fighting Fake News in the EFL-classroom through "The Bad News Game". Potential and Challenges, 2023-11-17 Lesson Plan from the year 2022 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Miscellaneous grade 11 Justus Liebig University Giessen Anglistik course Fake News Disinformaton and Critical Discourse Competence in the EFLC language English abstract This term paper seeks to investigate to what extent The Bad News Game is suitable to sensitize students to fake news and disinformation on the Internet through the presentation of a teaching unit consisting of one double lesson. The first part of the term paper addresses three empirical studies with a respective distance of one year which deal with the game and its effect on the players. Afterwards the theoretical second part will focus on the potentials and challenges in the EFL classroom which serves as a transition to the teaching unit. The teaching unit will present a possible lesson design for English classes developed with the core curriculum for the upper secondary school English lessons of the Hessian Ministry of Education in mind. Finally the conclusion summarizes the results of the chapters. The Bad News Game is an excellent choice for the classroom as it addresses crucial manipulation techniques and is well suited as a discussion starter to strengthen students' media literacy. Besides it improves resistance to disinformation making it a good introduction to the complex topic. The students' awareness for fake news and disinformation on the Internet can be raised with the help of interactive and narrative elements that occur in the game and encourage constructive discussion. The teaching unit which comprises a total of 1 double lesson serves to introduce the topic of fake news and disinformation and to get to know the prevailing problem as well as the linguistic characteristics. In addition it is interesting to find out how students define fake news and whether they have encountered them before. Humanities Index, 2002. An Empirical Study of the Causes of Military Coups and the Consequences of Military Rule in the Third World Wichai Kanchanasuwon, 1989. Nutrition Abstracts and Reviews, 2006.
