

"You have to understand what the KGB is, Elizabeth: it's the militant arm of the Soviet state outside Soviet territory—and inside it as well, but inside doesn't concern us—here concerns us... and I've seen it kill here—plan to kill, and then kill someone who got in the way of the killing, without a second thought, and that was a bloody 'project' too, which became an operation..." Again he caught himself, this time scrubbing his face clean before he continued. "So you've got to watch out for yourself now. Don't depend on Audley—don't even trust me..."

Something had changed about him. The garden, and the quiet of evening, with the smells of honeysuckle and lavender, were the same. But he was different.

"Why are you telling me this, Paul?"

"Orders, Elizabeth."

She shook her head. "No—why are you warning me?"

He looked at her curiously for a second, and then grimaced. "You know too much now, Elizabeth."

"But you said... David Audley trusts me now—"

He nodded. "That's right. And in my experience that's a damn good reason for not trusting him, I'm sorry to say."
