Oldport Days Thomas Wentworth Higginson, 1894 Excerpt and there stood in the doorway a small white figure holding aloft a lighted taper of pure alabaster It was Marian in her little night dress with the loose blue wrapper trailing behind her let go in the effort to hold carefully the doll Susan Halliday robed also for the night May I come in said the child Kenmure was motionless at first then looking over his shoulder said merely What Janet said continued Marian in her clear and methodical way that my mother was up in heaven and would help God hear my prayers at any rate but if I pleased I could come and say them by you A shudder passed over Kenmure then he turned away and put his hands over his eyes She waited for no answer but putting down the candlestick in her wonted careful manner upon a chair she began to climb upon the bed lifting laboriously one little rosy foot then another still dragging after her with great effort the doll Nestling at her father's breast I saw her kneel Once my mother put her arm round me when I said my prayers She made this remark under her breath less as a suggestion it seemed than as the simple statement of a fact Instantly I saw Kenmure's arm move and grasp her with that strong and gentle touch of his which I had so often noticed in the studio
