Olive's Ocean Kevin Henkes, 2005-04-26 Sometimes life can change in an instant Martha Boyle and Olive Barstow could have been friends but they weren't. Weeks after a tragic accident all that is left are eerie connections between the two girls former classmates who both kept the same secret without knowing it. Now even while on vacation at the ocean Martha can't stop thinking about Olive. Things only get more complicated when Martha begins to like Jimmy Manning a neighbor boy she used to despise. What is going on? Can life for Martha be the same ever again? Olive's Ocean Novel Units Student Olive's Ocean Bill Egginton, 2018 Moheet Olive (Olive's Ocean- Arabic edition) Kevin Henkes, 2015-12-10 Olive Barstow had been in Martha Boyle's class until she was killed by a hit and run driver while riding her bicycle. Then Martha finds out that Olive a girl she never really knew wrote in her journal about wanting to be friends with Martha and wanting to be a writer. Martha can't stop thinking about Olive even when she goes on vacation to stay with her grandmother by the ocean with her family. In the midst of experiencing first love, loneliness, embarrassment and fears of her beloved grandmother growing old Martha allows Olive's death to teach her lessons about living. Bird Lake Moon Kevin Henkes, 2013-07-02 Told in alternating voices this smart and engaging middle grade novel from the beloved Kevin Henkes is the story of two boys coming together in friendship as they struggle with family conflicts and tragedy. There are ghosts at Bird Lake and they're haunting Mitch and Spencer. Not the Halloween kind but ghosts of the past. Memories of how life was before the divorce, before the accident. Can their ghosts bring Mitch and Spencer together as friends? Or will their secrets keep them apart? Mitch feels isolated at his grandparents house and can't help hating his father who walked out on him and his mom two and a half weeks earlier. Spencer's family has decided it's finally time to return to Bird Lake years after his brother Matty drowned there. Both boys arrive at the lake scarred and fragile but as they become friends the sharp edges of their lives smooth out and slowly they are able to start healing. Superbly crafted. A must have for every library. School Library Journal starred review. In a novel as tender as his acclaimed Olive's Ocean Henkes probes the psyches of two boys facing family conflicts. Publishers Weekly starred review. Reading Raps Rita Soltan, 2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal. Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers. This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational.

Focusing on children in grades 3-8 and their families the book offers 100 ready-made book club instructions for popular children's and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson's Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett's Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award-winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz's Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto's Baseball in April and Other Stories. Along with thought-provoking discussion questions you'll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers: plot summary, themes and characters description, genre, reading level, author and award information, related reads and more. The guide describes four types of family-oriented book clubs: family, mother-daughter, father-son, and readers' rap, as well as a book club for kids only. The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful. For each title she provides a plot summary, characterization sketches, questions to use for provocative discussion, and follow-up bibliographies on similar reads. Notes on genres, themes, and reading levels are also provided. The selected titles reflect some of the best, most current and most popular children's literature. In addition, a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included. Perfect for public library programs and after-school book clubs, this is a one-stop resource with practical, ready-made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments. Grades 3-8

Inquiry as Stance Marilyn Cochran-Smith, Susan L. Lytle, 2015-04-25 In this long-awaited sequel to Inside/Outside: Teacher Research and Knowledge, two leaders in the field of practitioner research offer a radically different view of the relationship of knowledge and practice and of the role of practitioners in educational change. In their new book, the authors put forward the notion of inquiry as stance as a challenge to the current arrangements and outcomes of schools and other educational contexts. They call for practitioner researchers in local settings across the United States and around the world to ally their work with others as part of larger social and intellectual movements for social change and social justice. Part I is a set of five essays that conceptualize inquiry as a stance and as a transformative theory of action that repositions the collective intellectual capacity of practitioners. Part II is a set of eight chapters written by eight differently positioned practitioners who are or were engaged in practitioner research in K-12 schools or teacher education. Part III offers a unique format for exploring inquiry as stance in the next generation: a readers' theatre script that juxtaposes and co-mingles 20 practitioners' voices in a performance-oriented format. Together, the three parts of the book point to rich possibilities for practitioner inquiry in the next generation. Contributors: Rebecca Akin, Gerald Campano, Delvin Dinkins, Kelly A. Harper, Gillian Maimon, Gary McPhail, Swati Mehta, Rob Simon, and Diane Waff. Cochran-Smith and Lytle once again prove themselves to be among the best at melding theory and practice. Instead of merely making the case for practitioner inquiry, they go the next step to show us exactly what this genre brings to our field: rigor, relevance, and passion. The interplay of conceptual clarity and powerful exemplars makes this a text we will read well into the next decade. Gloria Ladson-Billings, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Once again, Marilyn Cochran-Smith and Susan Lytle point the way to new and hopeful understandings of practitioner research. Rather than blame teachers for all that is wrong with education, they and their fellow authors remind us that if school reform is to have any chance of fulfilling its stated goal of equal opportunity for all students teachers must have a significant voice in research policy and practice With its focus on social justice and its view of practitioner research as transformative this is a powerful and welcome sequel to their classic Inside Outside Sonia Nieto Professor Emerita University of Massachusetts Amherst Inquiry as Stance should be a blockbuster This brilliant sequel re calibrates relationships between practitioner inquiry and social justice Carole Edelsky Professor Emerita Arizona State University This optimistic and generous book is sure to become a central reference for teacher researchers in K 16 schools and their colleagues and supporters throughout the system Elyse Eidman Aadahl Director National Programs and Site Development National Writing Project University of California Berkeley This view of the intellectual and personal work of teaching is a major counter to the contemporary emphasis on testing and packaged curricula Cynthia Ballenger reading specialist Cambridge Public Schools Once again Cochran Smith Lytle and their colleagues bring us an invaluable book on the enormous possibilities of practitioner research Luis C Moll College of Education University of Arizona Stone Soup, 2004 SUMMARY Includes stories poems reviews and drawings for and by children Olive's Ocean Kevin Henkes, Mark Victor Hansen, Stephanie H.
