

On Idolatry

David W.T. Brattston

On Idolatry:

On Idolatry Tertullian of Carthage, 2017-12-18 Tertullian discusses how living as a Christian in a world where paganism is embedded in every social occasion Can a Christian go to e g a pagan wedding Tertullian is dealing with the general issue of living differently from the unbelievers who are steeped in idol worship He deals with the negative side of what to avoid and lists a few ways in which this may be done

On Idolatry Quintus Tertullianus, Tertullian, 2018-08-10 The principal crime of the human race the highest guilt charged upon the world the whole procuring cause of judgment is idolatry For although each single fault retains its own proper feature although it is destined to judgment under its own proper name also yet it is marked off under the general account of idolatry Set aside names examine works the idolater is likewise a murderer Do you inquire whom he has slain If it contributes ought to the aggravation of the indictment no stranger nor personal enemy but his own self By what snares Those of his error By what weapon The offense done to God By how many blows As many as are his idolatries He who affirms that the idolater perishes not will affirm that the idolater has not committed murder Further you may recognize in the same crime adultery and fornication for he who serves false gods is doubtless an adulterer of truth because all falsehood is adultery So too he is sunk in fornication For who that is a fellow worker with unclean spirits does not stalk in general pollution and fornication And thus it is that the Holy Scriptures use the designation of fornication in their upbraiding of idolatry The essence of fraud I take it is that any should seize what is another's or refuse to another his due and of course fraud done toward man is a name of greatest crime Well but idolatry does fraud to God by refusing to Him and conferring on others His honors so that to fraud it also conjoins contumely But if fraud just as much as fornication and adultery entails death then in these cases equally with the former idolatry stands unacquitted of the impeachment of murder Quintus Septimius Florens Tertullianus Tertullian
