

A pair of hands is shown holding a small, realistic-looking globe of the Earth. The globe is tilted, showing the Americas and parts of Europe and Africa. The oceans are a deep blue, and the landmasses are green with some yellowish-brown areas representing deserts or dry land. White clouds are visible swirling around the globe. The hands are positioned at the bottom and sides of the globe, with fingers gently gripping it. The background is dark, making the globe and hands stand out. Overlaid on the center of the globe is the text "God's Mission" in a bold, red, serif font with a white outline and a slight drop shadow.

Beyond Duty Tim Dearborn, 2013-01-03 DO YOU WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD but feel overwhelmed by all there is to do Do you sometimes doubt that significant change is even possible There is good news God isn t worried about the future of the world nor is God merely bringing minor changes Behold I make all things new says the Lord The coming kingdom brings total transformation metamorphosis What s more God doesn t call us to carry the burdens of the world and its transformation on our own shoulders Christ carries the world and by the power of the Spirit we live in Christ We do not have a mission for God in the world Rather the God of mission has us in the world Each of us has a vital role in the world We are invited to participate God s generous love bringing heaven to earth through us now The seven sessions of BEYOND Duty guide individuals groups and churches to our places as participants in God s mission in the world I originally wrote Beyond Duty to help liberate mission fanatics like me from enslavement to a human centered approach to mission That liberation is still needed today In our eagerness to make a difference in the world we can quickly subvert the good news of God s sovereign love into our ambitious burdensome and at times tedious effort to fulfill our mission in the world This revised and expanded edition pursues this seeking God s liberating grace to free us from the vain presumption that the future of God s mission is up to us Through a combination of our compassion regarding urgent needs what feels to us like the inactivity of God and the drive of our own need to make a difference in the world many of us all too easily take the needs of the world onto our shoulders as our personal responsibility This sounds so foolish However mission narcissism runs deep Though it may be obvious it still deserves to be said again Our central commitment is to God and God s kingdom not to ourselves or our service for God in that kingdom To make anything other than loving God and living in God s love for our neighbor even something as good and noble as God s mission in the world the central passion and commitment of our life is just plain old idolatry dressed in Christian clothing I ve lived much of my life seeking to serve in God s mission but I wonder at times for whom I am really working My suspicion is that sometimes I ve spread the unpleasant aroma of my need to make a difference in the world more than the sweet aroma of Christ In my more honest moments I admit that some of my mission was to reinforce my sense of significance It s so easy to become intoxicated by the seductive lies of our society that size determines significance speed measures impact and worth depends on success The gospel frees us to live from the center of God s encompassing love We needn t live from the burdensome center of me It s not about my mission ambitions work and weaknesses We can live as grateful participants in God s love for the world In the midst of our obedient service we can sing and play and not take ourselves so seriously What others are saying about BEYOND Duty A refreshing departure from usual mission books Emmanuel Katongole I am pleased to recommend this book to you Bill Hybels This may be the most important book I ve read all year Steve Haas An excellent practical tool for churches Ron Sider Read this rich reflection and serve with freedom Mark Labberton Inviting full of stories Christ centered Steve Sharol Hayner Substantial and practical I commend it warmly Vinay Samuel This is a wise guide Tom Theriault

Footprints of God Charles E. Van Engen, Nancy Thomas, Robert Gallagher, 2011-07-27 Twenty five doctoral students from around the world recently set out to forge a new path toward a theology of mission As they blazed a new trail they discovered the footprints of God evidence that God was their trial guide Charles Van Engen led this group of mission practitioners pastors teachers and mission executives as they set out to discover answers to important questions such as What is theology of mission and What is missiology The team used a new approach to answer these questions employing narrative to integrate personal story community stories cultural stories and biblical stories

Each writer brings his or her own unique context to bear on these important questions through personal story and by highlighting the work of a major missiologist who has impacted their life and work. By drawing from personal stories the authors show how human factors affect missiology. All of the chapters are set within a unique theological framework created by Charles Van Engen that focuses on mission of the way, mission in the way, and mission on the way. This framework reveals that mission must be of the way, Christ centered in the way, happening among the peoples and cultures of the world, and on the way moving forward over time through God's people as they anticipate Christ's present and coming kingdom. If you are concerned about connecting the Bible, theology, and ministry with the complexity and variety of contexts facing Christians today, then you will want to join this journey to discover the footprints of God. As Van Engen says, you will be encouraged to think theologically about mission and missiologically about theology.

Street Fisher Kevin Riordan, 2021-06. In Mark 1:16, Jesus met Simon and Andrew and said, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Two thousand years later, Jesus is still extending this invitation. Every believer has been invited on a fishing excursion. The fishing grounds are the places where we live. Our target is the hearts of men. Our bait is the power and love of Christ. In the pages of this book, you will discover Emanuel, God with us, who is actively pursuing the lost through any believer who will answer the call to go. Kevin Riordan founded Set Free Ministries with his wife Amy. Kevin is an itinerant evangelist who travels nationally and internationally, preaching the gospel and equipping the church for supernatural evangelistic ministry. Kevin's passion is to see every believer lit on fire with the love of Christ and working to fulfill the great commission with miracles, signs, and wonders following. Spiritual Warfare and Missions Jerry Rankin, Ed Stetzer, 2010-06-01. The mission of God to go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19, HCSB) is a major target of spiritual warfare today. In this new book by International Mission Board president Jerry Rankin and noted missiologist Ed Stetzer, the authors call out Satan's ongoing strategy to convince Christians that the Great Commission is optional. Through deceit, he is eroding the authoritative mandate of Scripture, leading believers to tell themselves that international discipleship is a task better left to denomination and mission agencies, not the sort of kingdom work that every believer can do. But for every evil, success, Rankin and Stetzer point to where Satan is failing, thus encouraging readers to renew their passion to declare God's glory among the nations. Indeed, by taking up the call to action, here we can be sure that the kingdoms of the world will become the kingdom of the Lord.

We're on a Mission from God Dan Bouchelle, 2021-11-21. In this book, we will first seek to recapture a healthy understanding of what in the world God is doing and find ways to accept God's invitation to join his sweeping mission to redeem and restore all his creation. Secondly, we will seek to rediscover the God of Mission and the Mission of God. Thirdly, we will be asking what God has been up to all these years, where he is going, and what our role is in this massive project. Finally, we will see that God's mission is as big as the universe and as long as eternity, yet is so small it can be advanced on a short airplane ride or by giving a cup of cold water at just the right time Mission as Hospitality Edward L. Smither, 2021-01-05 God is a missionary God God is also hospitable in his nature He makes his enemies friends and invites them to intimate communion The mission of God in Scripture often occurs through hospitality when God's people encounter the not yet people of God at table or in hospitable environments and invite them to believe This motif of mission as hospitality plays out through the Old and New Testament Scriptures and through the Eucharist It can also be observed through the witness of monks and contemporary missionaries who embraced a hospitable approach to mission For the church to participate in God's mission today a vision to win conquer or change the world should be exchanged for a conviction to welcome the stranger and make room for others while proclaiming the gospel that is to imitate the hospitable God in mission On Mission Patric Knaak, 2015-09-01 Extend the impact of any mission trip with a gospel centered grace motivated devotional and travel journal from Serge This guided ten day devotional helps Christians young or old process and remember the surprising moving and potentially life changing lessons learned The Jesus Mission Steven K. Scott, 2011-10-04 How Do I know What God Wants from Me Jesus came to earth to accomplish twenty seven impossible missions and He completed every one He calls us to follow Him by pursuing four lifetime missions that enable us to bear spiritual fruit and lay up treasures in Heaven He also gives us more than one hundred promises promises that provide the foundation and building blocks for a supernatural miracle working faith The Jesus Mission reveals the core discovery of the author's life which propelled his greatest spiritual breakthrough This same discovery can radically transform your walk with God Find out by reading Jesus words how He made it possible for you to live out the four lifetime missions He has given you starting today whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing and they will do even greater things than these because I am going to the Father John 14:12 niv Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen, 2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions The Sent Life Cliff Roberts Jordan, 2020 The church in the West today has separated something that was never intended to be divided This critical error impacts the very core of who a Christian is which informs and empowers what a Christian does Jesus said As the Father has sent Me I also send you and in doing so He designated all Christians as sent ones This means living on mission as a sent one is not reserved for a special class of Christians but is the very calling of all Christians Since that is true all Christians need to understand and be equipped for the mission of God In a survey of 36 church members participants showed that 88% thought that the mission of God could be explained succinctly however in that same survey the participants themselves were not able to define the mission of God succinctly nor consistently Christians cannot join a mission that is unclear This work provides clear and reproducible discipleship training on the mission of God Flowing out of that teaching this work also helps Christians to discover their place in God's mission There is great impact when discipleship leads all Christians to understand the mission of God and their role in it When the whole church understands and embraces the mission of God this will result in an unleashing of the greatest missionary force into the world both locally and globally The Mission of God Georg F. Vicedom,1965-01 The Mission of God is a basic book for every Christian who is serious about his part in the mission of God to the world It reflects responsible Biblical understanding and current changes in missionary thinking Already widely known in German as Missio Dei this English edition will extend its influence Spiritual Equipping for Mission Ryan Shaw,2014-09-05 Spiritual formation and discipleship are at the core of effective and fruitful mission Mission professional Ryan Shaw unpacks ten fundamental spiritual keys we need to practice to succeed and thrive spiritually in preparation of becoming God s message bearers in the world
