On Religion:

On Religion Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1893      Ernesto De Martino on Religion Dr. Fabrizio M. Ferrari, 2014-09-11

Ernesto de Martino was a major critical thinker in the study of vernacular religions producing innovative analyses of key concepts such as folklore magic and ritual. His methodology stemmed from his training under the philosopher Benedetto Croce whilst his philosophical approach to anthropology borrowed from Marx and Gramsci. Widely celebrated in continental Europe, de Martino's contribution to the study of religion has not been fully understood in the Anglophone world though some of his works Primitive Magic, the Psychic Powers of Shamans and Sorcerers and The Land of Remorse: a Study of Southern Italian Tarantism have been translated. This volume presents a comprehensive overview of de Martino's life and work, the thinkers and theories which informed his writings, his contribution to the study of religions and the potential of his methodology for contemporary scholarship.

Material Perspectives on Religion, Conflict, and Violence, 2022-09-12

How do objects become contested in settings characterized by violent conflict? Why are some things contested by religious actors? How do religious actors mobilize things in conflict situations and how are conflict and violence experienced by religious groups? This volume explores relations between materiality, religion and violence by drawing upon two fields of scholarship that have rarely engaged with one another: research on religion and violent conflict and the material turn within religious studies. This way, this volume sets the stage for the development of new conceptual and methodological directions in the study of religion-related violent conflict that takes materiality seriously. Contributors are Christoph Baumgartner, Margaretha van Es, Lucien van Lier, Erik Meinema, Birgit Meyer, Daan F. Oostveen, Younes Saramifar, Joram Tarusarira, Tammy Wilks.

The World's Religions in Figures Todd M. Johnson, Brian J. Grim, 2013-03-25. Created by two of the field's leading experts, this unique introduction to international religious demography outlines the challenges in interpreting data on religious adherence and presents a contemporary portrait of global religious belief. Offers the first comprehensive overview of the field of international religious demography, detailing what we know about religious adherents around the world and how we know it. Examines religious freedom and diversity, including agnostics and atheists, on a global scale, highlighting trends over the past 100 years and projecting estimates for the year 2050. Outlines the issues and challenges related to definitions, taxonomies, sources, analyses, and other techniques in interpreting data on religious adherence. Considers data from religious communities, censuses, surveys, and scholarly research, along with several in-depth case studies on the global Muslim population, religion in China, and the religious demography of recently created Sudan and South Sudan. Argues against the belief that the twentieth century was a secular period by putting forward new evidence to the contrary. Provides resources for measuring both qualitatively and quantitatively important data on the world's religious situation in the twenty-first century.

Catholicism Transformed draws on previously untapped archival sources to provide deep background to developments within the American Catholic Church in relationship to American society at large and Vatican Council II. During this time the Catholic community entered a transitional stage in which those on the right and those on the left battled for control of the Church's vision. This convergence of international and national forces of renewal and resistance to them will continue to shape the American Catholic community's global identity in the twenty-first century. Religion: The Basics Malory Nye, 2008-05-12.
