

This is a moment of prayer and also a moment of deep meditation. Consider your ways all this while and pour out your hearts before Him in prayer and in supplication. Plead with Him for mercy and for compassion. If you have erred, plead with Him for pardon, peradventure there will be hope of full and complete salvation for all of us in the end.

On Sober Reflection:

On Sober Reflection Paul B., Paul B., 2001-06 Paul B has over 40 years of experience as a radio TV writer broadcaster and talk show host He began his career as reporter for the Boston Globe Twelve years later he wrote a book about the Cocoanut Grove Fire of 1942 in which 590 persons were killed After the success of this book he accepted a position on a CBS owned radio station in Boston Next came a television opportunity in Chicago He then returned to Boston and began his own morning TV talk show For the next 32 years his hectic schedule created a steam kettle atmosphere fueled by alcohol continuing for the next 32 years In 1983 Paul B came to Alcoholics Anonymous While in this program he collected the remarkable quotations that comprise this book ON SOBER REFLECTION is an excellent compilation of statements from people struggling with the burden of alcoholism Written by someone who has remained alcohol free for an amazing 45 years this book is a valuable tool for anyone struggling with alcoholism or for any loved one struggling with this problem Sober Reflection Bassey Joseph (author), 1901 Sober Reflections Iorshagher Ikyereve, 2011-02-25 Sober Reflections is a collection of 83 poems It is divided into three phases Episode I 1993 1999 This section has 37 poems Episode II 2000 2006 has 32 poems while Episode III 2007 2008 has 14 poems Each of these episodes is an account or a description of a phase in time an event a situation or period of time in the poets experience in life that is important or interesting in some way which the poet wishes to communicate to his readership As the title of the anthology implies it is a poets reflection on experiences over periods of time or happenstances of life In Sober Reflections there is a unique feature that cuts across the whole poems and which holds the reader spell bound the poets use of simple diction which enhances good understanding and motivates the reader to read onto the end of each poem and the anthology at large His poetic diction which includes words phrases length and complexity of sentences or choice of words are not abstract not far fetched or bookish They are current in the ordinary conversation of the time His deliberate use of simple words features analogies and images drive home his messages more concretely The background of these poems and the subject of creativity are quite local and familiar his childhood experience village life River Benue Africa etc even help drive home his message more pointedly as opposed to abstract settings Poems that deal with historical times and the poets emotions such as When I was a boy Dookenger I need you I am in love and a host of others are very local and familiar Natural imageries employed are quite apt and make for easy understanding of the poems French Reflections in the Shakespearean Tragic Richard Hillman, 2018-07-30 Hillman explores English tragedy in relation to France with a frank concentration on Shakespeare He sets out to theorise more abstract tragic qualities such as nostalgia futility and heroism with reference to specific French texts and contexts Three manifestations of the Shakespearean tragic are singled out Hamlet Antony and Cleopatra and All s Well That Ends Well a comedy with melancholic overtones whose French setting is shown to be richly significant Hillman brings to bear on each of these central works a cluster of French intertextual echoes sometimes literary in origin whether dramatic or otherwise

sometimes involving historical texts memoirs or contemporary political documents which have no obvious connection with the plays but prove capable of enriching interpretation of them It will be of interest not only to scholars specialising in early modern English theatre but also to both specialists and students concerned with the circulation of information and the production of meaning within early modern European culture
