Managing Technological Development Hakan Hakansson,Alexandra Waluszewski,2003-09-02 In this book the story of how IKEA and its paper producers struggled to solve the problem of creating environmentally friendly paper constitutes the foundation of a discussion of technological development Through a detailed analysis of the case study the authors demonstrate the necessity of including social technological and economical factors when dealing with such issues Focusing on the interactive aspects of commercial and technological development they examine how new solutions are developed and shaped in relation to the different companies and organizations involved They investigate resources in terms of how they are related and built into other resources through historical and contemporary interaction processes Their overall emphasis is on dealing with the issue of how different closely and distantly related companies and organizations are affected when resources are developed

Managing Technology in Society Arie Rip,Thomas J. Misa,J. W. Schot,1995 A fateful conceptual gap separates the policy makers and managers charged with promoting technology and the risk and technology assessors responsible for controlling it This hampers the effective use of many new technologies and prevents the development of others The strategy of constructive technology assessment CTA addresses this gap through facilitating societal learning processes and proposing a shared responsibility for the promotion and control of new technologies Combining analysis of both cases and concepts Managing Technology in Society confronts the underdevelopment of innovative potential for achieving goals of wealth sustainability and safety Factors that block change as well as conditions for successful learning are identified in a wide ranging selection of cases that encompass biotechnology clean technologies information and medical technologies The contributors build on the convergence of recent theories on technical change within economics sociology and the history of technology to offer suggestions for CTA action and so create a new paradigm of managing technology in society BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Managing New Technology Development William E.
