The Book of Iowa Films Marty Knepper, John Lawrence, 2014-08-04 This is the first comprehensive history of films made in or about Iowa It reflects some twenty years of collecting lecturing and talking with some of Iowa's current generation of independent filmmakers It covers the span from 1918 to 2013 and gives important background information on dozens of high profile films such as the STATE FAIR films of 1933 and 1945 THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY FIELD OF DREAMS and many others It is designed as a companion for the State Historical Society's blockbuster Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition in Des Moines that is scheduled to run at least through 2016 The book has an interpretive essay covering the entire history as well as paragraph length descriptions of each film A user friendly feature is the Index of Films which makes it easy to locate discussions of individual films Marty Knepper is a featured commentator on video screens in the Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition     Marchman's Lady Caroline Brooks, 1986     Highland Lady Margaret Summerville, 1985

Lady Jane's Ribbons Sandra Heath, 1987     The Great Lady Tony Dawn Lindsey, 1986 Lady Antonia Burke was the most outrageous beauty in all the realm the gloom in her proper papa's life and the agony of her swarm of suitors Lucien St Clare was the most disgraceful lord in London having broken a legion of hearts Love between these two was an accident bound to happen and woe to the partner who relinquished the upper hand     The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included     Theatre Magazine, 1920     American Embroiderer, 1919     The Whispering Rocks Sandra Heath, 2016-05-28 Sarah Jane Stratford's father wishes her to marry her cousin Edward whom she can't bear But she is innocently involved in a scandal and banished to Mannerby in Darmoor Here the people seem to scorn her and her hosts Paul and Melissa Ransome only grudgingly make her welcome But there is something sinister going on at Hob's Tor and there is witchery about Regency Paranormal Romance by Sandra Heath originally published by Signet as Mannerby's Lady     Minion or Master Martin

Smith,2013-10-08 Minion or Master is a fast paced thriller set in 1966 that interweaves different story lines and characters leaving the reader in suspense as each section ends until the final conclusion The story subtly develops the Minion or Master concept whilst exploring relationships between father and son pimp and prostitute gang leaders and gang members civil servant and business man as well as romantic involvement George Howden a young inexperienced businessman working in Bermuda is forced by circumstance to try to defeat a prostitution and drugs gang in New York His business involvement with the ship Ocean Star makes him an accessory in smuggling chrome ore out of Africa and smuggling armaments for terrorists into Africa George gets involved with a number of believable well drawn characters who are mixed up with murder sex blackmail government power politics drug smuggling drug dependency and romance The story describes how he and others build relationships to last a lifetime and how some get destroyed The action starts in Africa and moves seamlessly between Bermuda New York and the Atlantic Ocean Minion or Master is the first in a series of thrillers featuring George Howden and Adrian Cuthbert covering the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries     The Toll Bar J. E. Buckrose,1912     Books in Print ,1983     American Theatre: A Chronicle of Comedy and Drama 1914-1930 Gerald Bordman,1995 The American Theatre series discusses every Broadway production chronologically show by show and season by season It offers plot summaries production details names of leading actors and actresses the roles they played as well as any special or unusual aspects of individual shows This second volume in the series covers what is probably the richest period in American theater the years 1914 through 1930 Bordman includes most of Eugene O'Neill's work along with playwrights as diverse as Elmer Rice and George Kaufman Among the era's stars one finds John and Ethel Barrymore Helen Hayes Katherine Cornell and Lynn Fontaine and Alfred Lunt Considering the sheer number of productions American theater climbed to its all time high in the 1920s by mid decade nearly 300 new plays appeared on Broadway each year America saw more theatrical activity in every sense of the word than any time before or since     Young Hearts J.
