Death in Jewish Life Stefan C. Reif, Andreas Lehnardt, Avriel Bar-Levav, 2014-08-27 Jewish customs and traditions about death, burial and mourning are numerous, diverse and intriguing They are considered by many to have a respectable pedigree that goes back to the earliest rabbinic period In order to examine the accurate historical origins of many of them an international conference was held at Tel Aviv University in 2010 and experts dealt with many aspects of the topic This volume includes most of the papers given then as well as a few added later What emerges are a wealth of fresh material and perspectives as well as the realization that the high Middle Ages saw a set of exceptional innovations some of which later became central to traditional Judaism while others were gradually abandoned Were these innovations influenced by Christian practice Which prayers and poems reflect
