New Testament Criticism:

New Testament Textual Criticism David Alan Black, 1994-04 A concise companion to Ellis Brotzman's Old Testament Textual Criticism Introduces students to the process of comparing Greek texts and seeking the original wording

Rethinking New Testament Textual Criticism David Alan Black, 2002-10-01 New Testament textual criticism is an important but often overlooked field of study Results drawn from textual studies bear important consequences for interpreting the New Testament and cannot be ignored by serious students of Scripture This book introduces current issues in New Testament textual criticism and surveys the various methods used to determine the original text among variant readings These essays from Eldon Jay Epp Michael Holmes J K Elliott Maurice Robinson and Moisés Silva provide readers with an excellent introduction to the field of New Testament textual criticism Myths and Mistakes in New Testament Textual Criticism Elijah Hixson, Peter J. Gurry, 2019-11-05 A renewed interest in textual criticism has created an unfortunate proliferation of myths mistakes and misinformation about this technical area of biblical studies Elijah Hixson and Peter Gurry along with a team of New Testament textual critics offer up to date accurate information on the history and current state of the New Testament text that will serve apologists and offer a self corrective to evangelical excesses Some Thoughts on the Textual Criticism of the New Testament George Salmon, 1897

New Testament Textual Criticism and Exegesis Joël Delobel, 2002 For many years Professor Joël Delobel has served as a member of the Department of Biblical Studies of the Faculty of Theology KU Leuven 1969-2001 His research has tended to focus on Luke Acts Pauline Literature and especially Textual Criticism he is a member of Das Institut für Neutestamentliche Textforschung Münster His friends and colleagues in the Department of Biblical Studies of the Faculty of Theology and elsewhere have honoured him with a Festschrift on the occasion of his retirement The congratulatory volume deals with an issue that is dear to him the mutual link between textual criticism and exegesis which he himself once referred to as the Siamese twins A number of international scholars in the field of textual criticism have treated different aspects of this relationship Some contributions are of a more general nature B Aland deals with the criteria used to judge the value of smaller New Testament Papyrus fragments J Lust compares the textual critical investigation of the Old Testament to that of the New W L Petersen studies the earliest form of the text of the Gospel Other contributions are related to a specific text Mt 21 28 32 J K Elliott Mk 16 8 C Focant Lk 7 42b T Baarda Lk 22 43 44 C M Tuckett Lk 24 12 F Neirynck Jn 4 1 G Van Belle Jn 12 31 M E Boismard Jn 16 13 R Bieringer Acts 15 20 29 21 25 C B Amphoux Rom 16 7 E J Epp Rom 16 25 27 R F Collins 1 Cor 2 1 V Koperski The Epistle of James D C Parker Rev 13 9 10 J Lambrecht and Rev 13 18 J N Birdsall J Verheyden deals with the New Testament text in the 2nd Century more specifically in the writings of Justin Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah, 2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i e to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice Chapters in Trhe History of New Testament Textual Criticism Bruce Manning Metzger, Studies in the Textual Criticism of the New Testament Bart D. Ehrman,2006-05-01 For the first time in one volume this book presents contributions to the textual criticism of the New Testament made over the past twenty years by Bart Ehrman one of the premier textual scholars in North America The collection includes fifteen previously published articles and six lectures delivered at Duke University and Yale University on a range of topics of central importance to the field Following a general essay that gives an introduction to the field for beginners are several essays dealing with text critical method especially pertaining to the classification of the Greek manuscript witnesses There then follow two articles on the history of the text several articles on important specific textual problems and three articles on the importance and use of patristic evidence for establishing the text and writing the history of its transmission The volume concludes with six lectures designed to show the importance not only of reconstructing an allegedly original text but also of recognizing how that text was changed by scribes of the early Christian centuries This book will be of vital interest to any scholar or advanced student of the New Testament and early Christianity It will make an ideal companion volume for Bart Ehrman s ground breaking study The Orthodox Corruption of Scripture The Effects of Early Christological Controversies on the Text of the New Testament Oxford 1993 and the volume he co edited with Michael Holmes The Text of the New Testament in Contemporary Research Essays on the Status Quaestionis Eerdmans 1995

The New Testament and Criticism George Eldon Ladd,1967 One unfortunate consequence of the bitter fundamentalist modernist controversy which raged in the early twenties has been the strongly negative attitude toward Biblical criticism assumed by some of the successors to the fundamentalists of the 1920s Such people according to the author insist that the critical method is basically hostile to the evangelical faith and they have continued to oppose any use of it Others however claiming the same heritage believe that the orthodox interpretation of the Gospel can be defended positively and constructively only with the aid of a sound critical method and the results of critical scholarship The author believes that an evangelical Biblical criticism is not only possible but necessary The central thesis of his book is that the Bible is the Word of God given in the words of men in history and as such its historical origins must be reconstructed as far as possible In this way a richer understanding of the Scriptures can be achieved Studies in the Theory and Method of New Testament Textual Criticism Eldon Jay Epp, Gordon D. Fee, 1993 The seventeen studies in this volume provide a presentation and assessment of past and current methods applied to the New Testament text Coauthors Epp and Fee offer an introductory survey of the whole field of New Testament textual criticism followed by sections of essays on these topics definitions of key terms critiques of current theory and method methods of establishing textual relationships studies of the papyri with respect to text critical method and guidelines for the use of patristic evidence From publisher's description

Text and Interpretation Hartin, Petzer, 2019-07-01 Text and Interpretation gives an insight into the many different approaches that more recent South African scholarship has adopted in the interpretation of the New Testament While the number of approaches in New Testament interpretation has proliferated over the past few years all the proposals still fall under one of the three traditional poles sender author text receptor reader Classified according to this division each chapter has a twofold aim Firstly the perspective is situated within a wider framework of interpretation to illustrate the context out of which this approach emerges Secondly each article has selected a particular New Testament text to demonstrate this approach in practice The authors of these chapters the majority of which are South African scholars were chosen because of their expertise in their specific fields By presenting these studies together in one collection the scholarship in these different areas will become more readily accessible to a wider group of scholars

McKnight,1994-10-01 This publication presents the rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament The tradition of study represented in the essays lies at the conjunction of developments in biblical studies and literary criticism 1 the exhaustion of New Testament historical criticism in general and redaction criticism in particular 2 the waning of Formalist New Critical approaches in literary study and 3 the emphasis upon the text in terms of language and discourse as the free play of signifiers The essays deal with theory exegesis and their interdependence in this new literary context However contributions of earlier epochs in the history of literary criticism and New Testament study are integrated into current approaches For example the issue of reference originating in the mimetic theories of classical antiquity is raised implicitly and explicitly Implications of literary study for theology are suggested The relationship between redaction critical and literary approaches is examined Theoretical and exegetical essays growing out of feminist literary study are offered Orality allegory deconstruction ideology sociological criticism rhetorical criticism narrative criticism as well as other themes and methods are discussed in the essays treatment of writings of the New Testament A rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament
