Views of the Biblical World: The New Testament Benjamin Mazar,1958 Paul & His World Helmut Koester,2007 Helmut Koester presents critical essays on theology eschatology in Paul s letters the apostle s religious cultural context the interaction of early Christianity with its Greco Roman environment as reflected in ancient literature archaeological remains Women in the New Testament World Susan Hylen,2018-11 Modern readers of the New Testament often notice its varying ideas about women Some passages encouraged women to be submissive and remain silent Yet in others women characters owned property headed households or spoke with approval Women in the New Testament World helps readers understand this conflicting evidence It argues that social norms of the time encouraged traditional feminine virtues However as Susan Hylen argues women in the culture enacted these virtues in a variety of ways including active leadership in households associations and cities In contrast to earlier approaches that divided the evidence into groups that either allowed or forbade women s leadership this book points to a tension that was pervasive across different groups and regions of the Roman world Society widely viewed women as inferior to men yet applauded their active pursuit of familial and civic interests Thus it was not the case that some women led while others were silent instead women were praised for modesty at the same time as they exerted influence in their communities Elaborating on this rich historical background Hylen illuminates new possibilities in New Testament texts

The New Testament around the World Mariam Kamell Kovalishyn,2025-04-29 As the church continues to expand and strengthen in non Western contexts it is increasingly important for students of the New Testament to be aware of how our global brothers and sisters exegete and apply Scripture Even when we share a grammatical historical approach with others our interpretation of biblical texts is invariably affected by social location and cultural context which influence the questions we ask of the text and how we apply it Western readers can become aware of how our culture influences our interpretation by learning from others from different perspectives including those whose experience may match the original audience more closely than our own This volume ideal as a supplemental textbook for courses in the New Testament brings together distinguished scholars from around the world with perspectives we might not typically encounter and includes some minority voices focused on life within the United States as well Each contributor writes on a biblical book or group of books and together they cover the whole New Testament These authors expose students and pastors in the West to new questions and ways of reading familiar texts The result is an eye opening spiritually enriching experience that will supplement and strengthen our own biblical interpretation

Jesus and Myth Peter John Barber,2021-02-15 Is Jesus mythological And is he a mere product of his cultural milieu Through narratological and social scientific analysis of the gospel account Barber systematically demonstrates that there are two opposing patterns structuring the gospel The first is the pattern of this world which is the combat myth with a typical sequence of motifs having mythological meanings It is lived out by everyone else in the accounts except Jesus because this pattern of the world is the pattern of myth culture which is the pattern of the old Adam and sin nature The pattern of Jesus is the pattern intended for Adam to walk in and is the unique pattern of the new Adam Jesus Christ Jesus s pattern inverts the sequence and subverts the significance of each and every motif and episode of the myth culture s pattern Barber shows that Jesus s failure to conform to this world s mythological pattern establishes that he is not mythological and not a product of his culture As the apostle Peter states we did not follow cleverly devised tales myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty 2 Pet 1 16
