Readers Choice Cooking Recipes:

Southern Living, 2011 The Recipe Reader Janet Floyd, Laurel Forster, 2017-03-02 Over the last decade there has been an intense and widespread interest in the writing and publishing of cookery books yet there remains surprisingly little contextualized analysis of the recipe as a generic form This essay collection asserts that the recipe in all its cultural and textual contexts from the quintessential embodiment of lifestyle choices to the reflection of artistic aspiration is a complex distinct and important form of cultural expression In this volume contributors address questions raised by the recipe its context its cultural moment and mode of expression Examples are drawn from such diverse areas as nineteenth and twentieth century private publications official government documents campaigning literature magazines and fictions as well as cookery writers themselves cookbooks and TV cookery In subjecting the recipe to close critical analysis The Recipe Reader serves to move the study of this cultural form forward It will interest scholars of literature popular culture social history and women s studies as well as food historians and professional food writers Written in an accessible style this collection of essays expands the range of writers under consideration and brings new perspectives contexts and arguments into the existing field of debate about cookery writing Six Women Who Shaped What Americans Eat Michelle

Mart, 2025-07-15 Six Women Who Shaped What Americans Eat tells the story of how food choice in modern America has been influenced by culture industrial abundance and health narratives Mart reflects on the careers of six women to illustrate the varied and overlapping influences on food choice Each of these women had a substantial impact on American cuisine attitudes toward food and what people chose to eat They highlighted the politics of food the pleasure of food the connection between food and health and the environmental harm of poor food choices Part one of the book discusses the bounties of the modern American food system and covers Hazel Stiebeling Poppy Cannon and Julia Child Stiebeling was a chemist and government nutritionist beginning in the 1930s and shaped dietary guidelines and school lunches that affected generations of Americans Cannon a best selling cookbook author and newspaper columnist gained fame in the 1950s by preaching the wonders of processed food Child another cookbook author and television personality starting in the 1960s celebrated French cuisine and made it accessible to American cooks and palates Part two examines the hidden costs of abundance and covers Frances Moore Lapp Marion Nestle and Alice Waters Lapp was an author and activist concerned with the environmental impact of food in the late 20th century and who is credited with bringing vegetarianism into the mainstream Nestle was an academic nutritionist government consultant and author who decried the undue influence of food corporations Waters a celebrity chef restaurateur and food activist became a symbol of alternative food movements in the 21st century Provided by publisher Toronto Star Cookbook Jennifer Bain, 2013-04-02 The long awaited cookbook from the test kitchen of Canada s largest newspaper More than just a collection of recipes the Toronto Star Cookbook is a gorgeously photographed cookbook that tells the story of the vibrant eclectic cuisine of Ontario Here are more than 150 recipes celebrating the
