Time of Revolt Ferran Izquierdo Brichs, John Etherington, Laura Feliu, 2017-07-31 This book explores the increasing political and social prominence of Islamist groups across the Middle East in recent years. The aftermath of the 2011 uprisings saw some groups access or even control political institutions through success at the ballot box while there has also been a marked resurgence of armed Islamist groups that have had profound effects at both the national and regional level. This volume helps us to understand the nature and development of organised political Islam over recent decades in several key Arab and Mediterranean countries: Mauritania, Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Libya, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, the Palestinian Territories and Turkey. The book identifies the central social and political Islamist actors, traces their ideological differences and similarities and analyses power relations both within and between these organizations in the context of political instability and uncertainty. It will be of interest to students and scholars across a broad range of disciplines including political science, sociology and international relations.

Hamas Beverley Milton-Edwards, Stephen Farrell, 2013-04-30 Declared a terrorist menace yet elected to government in a free election, Hamas now stands as the most important Sunni Islamist group in the Middle East. How did Hamas grow to be so powerful? Who supports it? What is its future? This essential insight into Hamas answers these questions. Milton Edwards and Farrell have between them spent decades researching and reporting from the heartlands of the Hamas movement and gained unrivalled access to the world of Islamic resistance and radical Islam in its potent Palestinian form. Drawing on their frontline experiences of recent events, their access to secret documents from the western intelligence community and interviews with leaders, militants and commanders of Hamas armed battalions, they reveal the full story of Hamas and the future of political Islam in the Middle East. Milton Edwards and Farrell show Hamas to be a broad and thus more powerful regional phenomenon than previously thought and by doing so contend that it is now time to rethink the war and the nature of Islam and its role in the Middle East. Beverley Milton Edwards is Professor in the School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy at Queens University Belfast. She is the author of books such as Contemporary Politics in the Middle East (2006) and The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: A People's War (2009). Prize-winning journalist Stephen Farrell is Foreign Correspondent for the New York Times and was previously Middle East correspondent for The Times.
