Mandy Oxendine:

Mandy Oxendine Charles Waddell Chesnutt,1997 In a novel rejected by a major publisher in the 19th century as too shocking for its time writer Charles W Chesnutt 1858 1932 challenges the notion that race class education and gender must define one's rightful place in society Both a romance and a mystery MANDY OXENDINE tells the compelling story of two fair-skinned racially mixed lovers who chose to live on opposite sides of the color line Whiteness in the Novels of Charles W. Chesnutt Matthew Wilson,2009 An examination of race and audience in an American innovator's writings That Middle World Julia S. Charles,2020-10-01 In this study of racial passing literature Julia S Charles highlights how mixed race subjects invent cultural spaces for themselves a place she terms that middle world and how they through various performance strategies make meaning in the interstices between the Black and white worlds Focusing on the construction and performance of racial identity in works by writers from the antebellum period through Reconstruction Charles creates a new discourse around racial passing to analyze mixed race characters' social objectives when crossing into other racialized spaces To illustrate how this middle world and its attendant performativity still resonates in the present day Charles connects contemporary figures television and film including Rachel Dolezal and her Black passing controversy the FX show Atlanta and the musical Show Boat to a range of nineteenth and early twentieth century literary texts Charles's work offers a nuanced approach to African American passing literature and examines how mixed race performers articulated their sense of selfhood and communal belonging Madness and the Loss of Identity in Nineteenth Century Fiction Judy Cornes,2007-09-11 An obsession with individual identity pervaded Western thinking in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This critical study examines the concept of identity in the works of nineteenth century American and British authors focusing especially on psychologically mad, vague, shifting and dualistic characterization Authors examined include Ambrose Bierce Henry James Wilkie Collins Robert Louis Stevenson Charles Chesnutt Lillie Devereux Blake and Mary Elizabeth Braddon The text discusses how each author was influenced by contemporary events such as the American Civil War slavery the Second Great Awakening and the beginnings of modern psychology how those experiences shaped contemporary intellectual thought regarding identity and how the resulting concern with personal identity was manifested in literary characters who were either in search of or running from themselves Chesnutt and Realism Ryan Simmons,2006-08-08 An important examination of Charles Chesnutt as a practitioner of realism With the release of previously unpublished novels and a recent proliferation of critical studies on his life and work Charles W Chesnutt 1858 1932 has emerged as a major American writer of his time the age of Howells Twain and Wharton In Chesnutt and Realism Ryan Simmons breaks new ground by theorizing how understandings of literary realism have shaped and can continue to shape the reception of Chesnutt's work Although Chesnutt is typically acknowledged as the most prominent African American
