Mediaeval Manichaeen Book Art focuses on a corpus of c one hundred fragments of exquisitely illuminated manuscripts that were produced under the patronage of the Turkic speaking Uygurs in the Turfan region of East Central Asia between the 8th and 11th centuries CE and used in service of the local Manichaeen church By applying a codicological approach to the analysis of these sources this study casts light onto a lost episode of Central Asian art history and religious book culture Each of the five chapters in this book accomplishes a well defined goal The first justifies the formation of the corpus The second examines its dating on the basis of scientific and historical evidence Chapter three assesses the artistry of their bookmakers scribes and illuminators The fourth documents the patterns of page layout preserved on the fragments The final chapter analyses the contextual relationship of their painted and written contents Mediaeval Manichaeen Book Art represents a pioneer study in its subject research methodology and illustrations It extracts codicological and art historical data from torn remains of lavishly decorated Middle Persian Sogdian and Uygur language manuscripts in codex scroll and palm leaf formats Through detailed analyses and carefully argued interpretations aided by precise computer drawings the author introduces an important group of primary sources for future comparative research in Central Asian art mediaeval book illumination and Manichaeen studies Buddhism in Iran M. Vaziri, 2012-07-26

its predecessor Emerging from Darkness: Studies in the Recovery of Manichaean Sources Brill 1997 this volume presents the latest international scholarship from leading researchers in the growing field of Manichaean studies Here the researchers move from the continuing foundational work of recovering Manichaean sources to the necessary task of understanding the relationship of Manichaeans to the larger world in which they lived That relationship took several distinct forms and the contributions in this book analyze those forms examining the relationship of Manichaeism with diverse cultural social and religious traditions
