Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1925 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Canon Kenneth Keating, 2017-03-27 This book makes an important intervention into debates about influence and contemporary Irish poetry Supported throughout by incisive reflections upon allusion word choice and formal structure Keating brings to the discussion a range of new and lesser known voices which decisively complicate and illuminate its pronounced concerns with inheritance history and the Irish poetic canon Steven Matthews Professor of English Literature University of Reading UK and author of Irish Poetry Politics History Negotiation and Yeats As Precursor This book is about the way that contemporary Irish poetry is dominated and shaped by criticism It argues that critical practices tend to construct reductive singular and static understandings of poetic texts identities careers and maps of the development of modern Irish poetry This study challenges the attempt present within such criticism to arrest stabilize and diffuse the threat multiple alternative histories and understandings of texts would pose to the formation of any singular pyramidal canon Offered here are detailed close readings of the recent work of some of the most established and high profile Irish poets such as Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuckian along with emerging poets to foreground an alternative critical methodology which undermines the traditional canonical pursuit of singular meaning and definition through embracing the troubling indeterminacy and multiplicity to be found within contemporary Irish poetry The Challenge of D.H. Lawrence Michael Squires, Keith Cushman, 1990 Thirteen essays that aim to illuminate the achievement of one of England's greatest modern writers Employing a variety of perspectives historical cultural theoretical feminist the critics here assembled address concerns about Lawrence's work that have emerged in recent years his attitudes toward the working class art women Britain his conceptions of male female relationships sexuality education and knowledge and his place in cultural history and the traditions of the English novel All of the essays from reassessments of Lawrence's position in the English literary tradition to analyses of his influence on recent American poetry find renewed faith in the challenge of Lawrence's work making this volume of interest to Lawrence scholars and students Now All Roads Lead to France: A Life of Edward Thomas Matthew Hollis, 2012-10-22 Winner of the Costa Biography Award a fascinating exploration of one of the twentieth century's most influential poets Edward Thomas was perhaps the most beguiling and influential of the war poets This haunting account of his final five years follows him from his beloved English countryside to the battlefield in France where he lost his life When he met the American poet Robert Frost in 1913 Thomas was tormented by feelings of failure in his work and in his marriage With Frost's encouragement he began writing poem after poem as he finally found the expression for which he had spent his life searching But the First World War put an ocean between them Frost returned to New England while Thomas enlisted and went to fight in France It is these roads taken and not taken that are at the heart of this unforgettable book which culminates in Thomas's tragic death on Easter Monday 1917 Now All Roads Lead to France encompasses an astonishingly creative moment in English literature when London was a battleground for new ambitious writing A generation that included W B Yeats Ezra Pound Robert Frost and Rupert Brooke was making it new vehemently and pugnaciously and this dazzling biography places Thomas firmly in their midst The Bookman,1921 Scotland's Harvest Richie McCaffery,2023-07-24 This study is the first exploration of the impact of World War Two on Scottish poets of both the front line and the home front World War One has always been thought of as a poet's war one of horror and futility The poetry of World War Two by contrast has long languished in its shadow though there was a much greater amount of it written This book asks whether these poets felt they were grown for war or rather that they grew through war experience with an emphasis on the possibilities of the future instead of cataloguing the senseless horror of the battlefield How were the hopes of Scottish poets different from their English counterparts How was their poetry different and how did it impact on their later lives School,1906 A Catalogue of the Books and Manuscripts of Robert Louis Stevenson in the Library of the Late Harry Elkins Widener Harvard University. Library. Widener Collection,Abraham Simon Wolf Rosenbach,1913 The Menorah Journal,1917 Hand-book of Universal Literature, from the Best and Latest Authorities Anne Charlotte Lynch Botta,1879 University Magazine,1874 Resources in Education,1981 Poetry Review Stephen Phillips,Galloway Kyle,1927 Concordance to the Works of Alfred Tennyson Poet Laureate Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1870 Progress George William Foote,1885 Forest and Stream,1891 The Booklist,1927 The Academy and Literature,1903 The Scots Magazine,1742 The Dublin University Magazine,1874
