New Religious Movements Europe:

New Religious Movements in Europe Johannes Aagaard, Helle Meldgaard, 1997 RENNER Studies on New Religions is an initiative supported by the Danish Research Council for the Humanities The series was established to publish books on alternative spiritual movements from a wide range of perspectives The books will appeal to an international readership of scholars students and professionals in the study of religion theology the arts and the social sciences It is hoped that this series will provide a proper context for scientific exchange between these often competing disciplines Stimulated by travel mass media and education individuals have spent the twentieth century questioning organized religion and at the start of a new millennium many are turning to spirituality rooted in ancient practice but modernized by secular experience In this volume an international group of authors surveys the religious and spiritual movements growing in popularity in Western Europe including to name a few theosophy Transcendental Meditation the Rosicrucians the Occult and Hare Krishna

Researching New Religious Movements Elisabeth Arweck, 2004-08-02 What this book is about Milestones in a research itinerary Institutions and institutional knowledge Sketching in the cultural background The anti cult movement s response The response of the mainstream churches Conclusions New Religious Movements in Western Europe Elisabeth Arweck, Peter Clarke, 1997-04-16 The first compilation that brings together publications on New Religious Movements NRMs from across Western Europe this useful work includes titles written in most European languages The Introduction provides an overview of NRMs since 1960 and places them in a global perspective The literature from the late 1970s to the present covers areas of study such as sociology psychology history theology and more and will be of interest to scholars and students in many disciplines The work is a companion piece to Diane Choquette s New Religious Movements in the United States and Canada A Critical Assessment Greenwood 1985 The authors experts in NRMs throughout the world discuss various explanatory models that account for the emergence of NRMs and look at the way they have spread throughout the countries of Western Europe Membership and impact are discussed as well as the response of the wider society The label new is addressed and some attempts at classification are presented Politics of Religion in Western Europe François Foret, Xabier Itçaina, 2013-06-17 Religion is becoming increasingly important to the study of political science and to re-examine key concepts such as democracy securitization foreign policy analysis and international relations The secularization of Europe is often understood according to the concept of multiple modernities the idea that there may be several roads to modernity which do not all mean the eradication of religion This framework provides support for the view that different traditions societies and groups can come to terms with the components of modernity capitalism democracy human rights science and reason while keeping in touch with their religious background faith and practice Contributors examine the interaction between EU integration processes and Western European countries such as Belgium France Luxembourg Austria Scandinavia Italy and the UK and shine fresh light on the economic and cultural contexts brought about by relationships between politics and religion including immigrant religions and new religious movements This volume combines theoretical perspectives from political sociology and international relations to consider the role of religion as a source of power identity and ethics in institutions and societies Politics of Religion in Western Europe will be of interest to scholars of politics religion the European Union and political sociology Interpreting Contemporary Christianity Ogbu Kalu,Alaine Low,2008-08-05 In this multidisciplinary interpretation of world Christianity and the changing shape of the global religious landscape scholars consider the complex dynamics shaping Christianity s recent expansion in all parts of the globe They view the explanations of homogenization or American cultural influence as being necessarily limited and point to the far more varied intersections of external influence and indigenous appropriation The geographical coverage and the voices from various corners of the globe exemplify the shift of Christianity s center of gravity away from the northern hemisphere New voices new methods and new perspectives emerge here Contributors Afe Adogame Edith L Blumhofer Joel Carpenter Paul Freston Anthony dela Fuente Jehu J Hanciles Brian M Howell Ogbu U Kalu Sebastian C H Kim Philomena Njeri Mwaura John Parratt Dana L Robert Brian Stanley Diane Stinton Feiya Tao Kevin Xiyi Yao Subcultures and New Religious Movements in Russia and East-Central Europe George McKay,2009 Based on extensive ethnographic research this collection uses a variety of theoretical perspectives and methodologies to examine some of the many subcultures and new religious movements that have emerged in Central and Eastern Europe since the fall of communism Focus on Religion in Central and Eastern Europe András Máté-Tóth,Gergely Rosta,2016-11-07 Different religious groups in Central and Eastern Europe influenced societies in the region after the fall of Communism and continue to play a crucial role in culture politics social networks and value transformations As part of the REVACERN Religion and Values in Central and Eastern Europe Research Network project supported by the EU Sixth Framework Program more than 70 researchers from 15 countries in the region analyzed and discussed the most important trends in values religions and religious communities and presented their findings in a comparative way They tested well known theories of secularization nationalism democracy and pluralism in the colorful region Central and Eastern Europe This book summarizes their most important findings in seven chapters addressing religion and its entanglements with geography values nationalism Orthodoxy education legal regulation civil society social networks new religious movements and new forms of religiosity Each chapter also provides a regional overview Beshara and Ibn 'Arabi Suha Taji-Farouki,2007-11-01 Investigating sufi inspired spirituality in the modern world this multi faceted and interdisciplinary volume focuses on Beshara a spiritual movement that applies the teachings of Ibn Arabi in a non Muslim context It traces the movement s emergence in sixties Britain and analyses its major teachings and practices exploring through this case study the interface between sufism and the New Age and the encounter between Islam and the West Examining from a global perspective the impact of cultural transformations associated with modernization and globalization on religion this timely volume concludes by tracing possible futures of sufi spirituality both in the West and in the Muslim world Religion, Globalization, and Culture Peter Beyer, Lori G. Beaman, 2007-10-30 This volume brings together over 25 articles by many of the most important authors who have worked on issues directly related to the theme of religion and globalization. An additional emphasis on culture flags the inclusion of the relation of religion to its wider social context and also permits questioning the boundaries of religion so as to avoid a strong bias in favour of the analysis of institutionalized religion. The key emphasis of the book however is the focus specifically on religion a topic that is still largely ignored in the burgeoning literature on globalization. The articles are divided into five subthemes: theoretical issues, historical approaches to religion and globalization, forms and boundaries of religion, key issues such as ecology and gender, and regional perspectives. Contributors: Afe Adogame, Elisabeth Arweck, Lori Beaman, Peter Beyer, John Boli, Gary Bouma, Dave Brewington, George Van Campbell, Jos Casanova, Paul Freston, Nobutaka Inoue, Laurel Kearns, Otto Maduro, Vasilios Makrides, Meredith McGuire, Vincenzo Pace, Rubina Ramji, James T. Richardson, Ole Riis, Roland Robertson, Marie Andr e Roy, Shandip Saha, John H. Simpson, James V. Spickard, William Stahl, George Thomas, Bryan Turner, Margit Warburg, and Michael Wilkinson Challenging Religion James A. Beckford, James T. Richardson, 2003-09-02 Leading scholars examine the growth of new religious movements or cults in the US and Europe over the last 50 years and state attempts to monitor and control them, debating the political, practical, and ethical issues which arise Religion and the Conceptual Boundary in Central and Eastern Europe T. Bremer, 2015-12-11 This volume concentrates on the conceptual boundary through Europe which is determined by Western and Eastern Christianity. The chapters show that the boundary has never been a stable and defined division but that it was also subject to change and development and a place of encounter and exchange between religions and cultures Religion and European Society Ben Schewel, Erin K. Wilson, 2019-04-17 A contemporary examination of the role of religion in the European public sphere and beyond. Although the role of religion has arguably declined in the societies of Western and Northern Europe, religious participation in other parts of the continent and among growing immigrant communities remains an important aspect of daily life. Recent years have seen a resurgence of religion in the public sphere, prompting many researchers to view European secularism as an outlier in this global trend. Religion and European Society: A Primer presents recent academic literature that explores key developments and current debates in the field, covering topics such as changing patterns of belief, religion across the political spectrum, and development and humanitarian aid. Articles written by leading scholars draw from well-established findings to help readers contemplate the role of religion in public life, understand the assumptions and underpinnings of the secular worldview, and develop new ways of thinking about global issues relevant to contemporary global affairs. Each theme is addressed by several articles to provide readers with diverse, sometimes competing perspectives. This volume offers concepts and ideas that can be used in various policy, practitioner, and academic settings, clarifying overarching concepts and trends rather than analyzing specific policy issues that can quickly become outdated. Addresses issues of contemporary importance such as demographic changes, increased religious observance, and the role of religion in public life.

immigration the emergence of new religious movements and changes in more established religions Explores the ethical and philosophical concepts as well as the practical everyday consequences of European post secularism Challenges widespread assumptions about the secular nature of the modern public sphere Offers analytical tools as well as practical policy recommendations on a range of issues including media regulation gender conflict and peacebuilding immigration and humanitarianism Designed to move research findings from academic journals to the realm of public discourse Religion and European Society A Primer is a valuable source of information for practitioners within and outside of Europe of religious studies politics and international affairs Europe and new religious movements II ,2005 The Centrality of Religion in Social Life Eileen Barker,2021-11-18 James A Beckford s work is internationally acclaimed not only in the sociology of religion but also in other fields of the social sciences Beckford has long been arguing that the barriers that have grown up between the different sub disciplines should be broken down with those specialising in religion becoming more cognisant of new theoretical developments and sociologists in general becoming more aware of the significance of developments in the religious scene This book is a collection of essays written in Beckford s honour drawing on a number of religious themes that have been central to Beckford s interests whilst also offering a significant contribution to our understanding of the wider society A central theme is modernity and its relation to the post modern and how religion affects and is affected by the dynamics of contemporary society with the primary focus of many of the chapters being a concern with how society copes with the minority religions that have become visible with the globalising tendencies of contemporary society The contributors who come from America Asia and various parts of Europe are all internationally renowned scholars Beckford s most important publications are listed in an Appendix and the volume opens with a short account of his contribution to sociology by Eileen Barker the editor and James T Richardson New Religions in Global Perspective Peter B. Clarke,2004-06-01 Peter B Clarke s in depth account explores the innovative character of new religious movements and new forms of spirituality from a global vantage point Ranging from North America and Europe to Japan Latin America South Asia Africa and the Caribbean it is the perfect introduction to NRMs such as Falun Gong Aum Shikyo the Brahma Kumaris the Ikhwan or Muslim Brotherhood Sufism the Engaged Buddhist and Engaged Hindi movements Messianic Judaism and Rastafarianism Charting the cultural significance and global impact of NRMs he discusses the ways in which various religious traditions are shaping rather than displacing each other s understanding of notions such as transcendence and faith good and evil of the meaning purpose and function of religion and of religious belonging He then examines the responses of governments churches the media and general public to new religious movements as well as the reaction to older increasingly influential religions such as Buddhism and Islam in new geographical and cultural contexts Taking into account the degree of continuity between old and new religions each chapter contains not only an account of the rise of the NRMs and new forms of spirituality in a particular region but also an overview of change in the regions mainstream religions Politics of Religion
