New Socialisms Futures Beyond Globalization:

New Socialisms Robert Albritton, Shannon Bell, Richard Westra, 2004-07-31 The major problems facing the world as it gets used to the twenty first century are global inequality poverty war and militarism oppression exploitation and ecological sustainability Far from solving these problems economic and political neo liberalism seems to be plunging us deeper into them Diverse opposition movements have arisen over the years to combat these problems which the groups generally consider to be the result of globalization These opposition movements suffer greatly from being opposed to lots of things without necessarily putting forward realistic alternative suggestions This impressive new book seeks to analyze and develop serious alternatives to the status quo With contributions from a wide range of scholars this important book will provide a uniquely varied outlook Students and academics involved in international politics and economics as well as general readers with an interest in the anti globalization movement will find this work incredibly useful

Political Economy and Global Capitalism Robert Albritton, Bob Jessop, Richard Westra, 2010 This volume brings together original and timely writings by internationally renowned scholars that reflect on the current trajectories of global capitalism and in the light of these consider likely possible or desirable futures It offers theory informed writing that contextualizes empirical research on current world historic events and trends with an eye towards realizing a future of human social and economic betterment

Reconciling Human Existence with Ecological Integrity Laura Westra, Klaus Bosselmann, Richard Westra, 2012-05-16 The ecological challenge demands a paradigm shift in our thinking about the human environment relation Reconciling Human Existence with Ecological Integrity provides a state of the art account of work on ecological integrity and offers a compelling vision for the future Derek Bell Senior Lecturer at the School of Geography Politics and Sociology University of Newcastle A book of vast scope and richness If policymakers around the world took notice of this insightful set of messages we would all live with greater happiness health and wellbeing with a brighter future for our children and grandchildren Lawrence O Gostin O Neill Professor of Global Health Law Georgetown University Law Center This book attempts to do in theory what the world needs to do in practice It is an ecological master plan that shows how we can not only survive but also flourish James P Sterba President of the American Philosophical Association Central Division Ecosystems have been compared to a house of cards remove or damage a part and you risk destroying or fundamentally and irreversibly altering the whole Protecting ecological integrity means maintaining that whole an aim which is increasingly difficult to achieve given the ever growing dominance of humanity This book is the definitive examination of the state of the field now and the way things may and must develop in the future Written and edited by members of the Global Ecological Integrity Group an international collection of the worlds most respected authorities in the area the book considers the extent to which human rights such as the rights to food energy health clean air or water can be reconciled with the principles of ecological integrity The issue is approached from a variety of economic legal ethical and ecological standpoints providing an essential resource for researchers students and those in government or business in a wide range of disciplines Let Them Eat Junk Robert Albritton,2009-03-20 This book analyses the food industry from a Marxist perspective Let The Eat Junk argues that the capitalist system far from delivering on the promise of cheap nutritious food for all has created a world where 25% of the world population are over fed and 25% are hungry This malnourishment of 50% of the world s population is explained systematically a refreshing change from accounts that focus on cultural factors and individual greed Robert Albritton details the economic relations and connections that have put us in a situation of simultaneous oversupply and undersupply of food This explosive book provides yet more evidence that the human cost of capitalism is much bigger than those in power will admit Capitalism and the Dialectic John Bell,2009-10-15 An introduction and exposition to the Uno approach of Marx s work Encyclopedia of the Global Economy: List of entries David Edward O'Connor,2006 Examines the concepts people and organizations related to economic globalization from the sixteenth century to the present and features over 150 alphabetically arranged entries and primary documents on topics including international trade outsourcing and child labor

Eco-Sufficiency and Global Justice Ariel Salleh,2009-03-15 As the twenty first century faces a crisis of democracy and sustainability this book tries to bring academics and globalisation activists into conversation Through studies of global neoliberalism ecological debt climate change and the ongoing devaluation of reproductive and subsistence labour these essays women thinkers expose the limits of current scholarship in political economy ecological economics and sustainability science The book introduces theoretical concepts for talking about humanity nature links Problemi Di Bioetica ,2005
