New Space For Women Gerda R Wekerle, Rebecca Peterson, David Morley, 1980      New Space for Women Gerda R. Wekerle, 2019-04-18 In recent years increasing self awareness has led women to examine and question their environments largely designed and structured by men in light of their particular needs and experiences Inevitably these changes in consciousness have led to demands for changes in existing architectural social and psychological environments and for an increase      Discrimination by Design Leslie Weisman, 1994 Discrimination by Design is a fascinating account of the complex social processes and power struggles involved in building and controlling space Leslie Kanes Weisman offers a new framework for understanding the spatial dimensions of gender and race as well as class She traces the social and architectural histories of the skyscraper maternity hospital department store shopping mall nuclear family dream house and public housing high rise Her vivid prose is based on exhaustive research and documents how each setting along with public parks and streets embodies and transmits the privileges and penalties of social caste In presenting feminist themes from a spatial perspective Weisman raises many new and important questions When do women feel unsafe in cities and why Why do so many homeless people prefer to sleep on the streets rather than in city run shelters Why does the current housing crisis pose a greater threat to women than to men How would dwellings communities and public buildings look if they were designed to foster relationships of equality and environmental wholeness And how can we begin to imagine such a radically different landscape In exploring the answers the author introduces us to the people policies architectural innovations and ideologies working today to shape a future in which all people matter Richly illustrated with photographs and drawings Discrimination by Design is an invaluable and pioneering contribution to our understanding of the issues of our time health care for the elderly and people with AIDS homelessness racial justice changing conditions of work and family life affordable housing militarism energy conservation and the preservation of the environment This thoroughly readable book provides practical guidance to policymakers architects planners and housing activists It should be read by all who are interested in understanding how the built environment shapes the experiences of their daily lives and the cultural assumptions in which they are immersed      Place and the Politics of Identity Michael Keith, Steve Pile, 2004-11-23 In the last two decades new political subjects have been created through the actions of the new social movements often by asserting the unfixed and overdetermined character of identity Further in attempting to avoid essentialism people have frequently looked to their territorial roots to establish their constituency A cultural politics of resistance as exemplified by Black politics feminism and gay liberation has developed struggles to turn sites of oppression and discrimination into spaces of resistance This book collects together perspectives which challenge received notions of geography which are in danger of becoming anachronisms without a language to articulate the new space of resistance the new politics of identity      Deconstructing Sexuality in the Middle East Pinar Ilkkaracan, 2016-05-13 Exploring the contemporary dynamics of sexuality in the Middle East this volume offers an in depth and unique insight into this much contested and debated issue It focuses on the role of sexuality in political and social struggles and the politicization of sexuality and gender in the region Contributors illustrate the complexity of discourses debates and issues focusing in particular on the situation in Iran Iraq Jordan Lebanon Pakistan Palestine and Turkey and explain how they cannot be reduced to a single underlying factor such as religion or a simple binary opposition between the religious right and feminists Contributors include renowned academicians researchers psychologists historians human rights and women s rights advocates and political scientists from different countries and backgrounds offering a balanced and contemporary perspective on this important issue as well as highlighting the implication of these debates in larger socio political contexts

Reading Mohamed Choukri's Narratives Jonas Elbousty, Roger Allen, 2024-07-15 Reading Mohamed Choukri's Narratives presents an intricate exploration into the life and literary universe of Mohamed Choukri a towering figure in 20th century Moroccan literature Known primarily for his groundbreaking autobiographical work al Khubz al f For Bread Alone Choukri's literary influence extends well beyond this single work This book seeks to cast a light on his broader body of work examining the cultural societal and personal influences that shaped his unique storytelling style Through a deep analysis of his narratives this text aims to unfold how Choukri portrayed the harsh realities he and others encountered giving voice to the marginalized individuals and communities in Morocco

Design and Feminism Joan Rothschild, Alethea Cheng, 1999 The distinction between the spaces considered public and private or work and home is becoming more blurred Our streets parks dwellings and tools are designed to a one size fits all standard and the responses of the design community to meet diverse needs have been mixed at best Design and Feminism offers feminist critiques of these inadequate design standards and suggest ideas projects and programs for change

Spaces of Their Own Mayfair Mei-hui Yang, 1999 How are the public and political lives of Chinese women constrained by states and economies And how have pockets of women s consciousness come to be produced in and disseminated from this traditionally masculine milieu The essays in this volume examine the possibilities for a public sphere for Chinese women one that would both emerge from concrete historical situations and local contexts and cut across the political boundaries separating the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and the West The challenges of this project are taken up in essays on the legacy of state feminism on the Mainland as contrasted with a grassroots women s movement challenging the state in Taiwan on the role of the capitalist consumer economy in the emerging lesbian movement in Taiwan and on the increased trafficking of women as brides prostitutes and mistresses between the Mainland and wealthy male patrons in Taiwan and Hong Kong The writers examples of masculine domination in the media include the reformulation of Chinese women in Fifth Generation films for a transnational Western male film audience and the portrayal of Mainland women in Taiwanese and Hong Kong media The contributors also consider male nationalism as it is revealed through both international sports coverage on television and in a Chinese television drama Other works examine a women s museum a telephone hotline in Beijing the films of Hong Kong filmmaker Ann Hui the transnational contacts of a Taiwanese feminist organization the diaspora of Mainland women writers and the differences between Chinese and Western feminist themes Proposed Plans for the Enlargement and Improvement of Park (First) Congregational Church Park Congregational Church (Grand Rapids, Mich.),1929 Francophone African Poetry and Drama Richard J. Gray II,2014-09-23 Scholars examining literature from former French colonies sometimes view it wrongly as simply an outgrowth of colonial literature By suggesting new ways to understand the multiple voices present this book explores how Francophone African poetry and theatre in particular since the 1960s constitute both an organic cultural product and a reflection of the diverse African cultures in which they originate Themes explored in five chapters include the many kinds of African identity formation the resistance to former notions of literary composition as art a remapping of social responsibility and the impact of globalization on Francophone Africa s participation in world economics politics and culture This study highlights the inner workings of Francophone African literature and suggests a canonization of modern Francophone works from a world perspective Teaching Gender Samuel Rutherford,2025-03-17 In Britain in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries universities were one of many institutional state structures wherein gender difference the male breadwinner ideal and heterosexuality were central to a conception of citizenship But while the state could enforce these norms through the parameters it set on the extension franchise or the distribution of welfare benefits individual women and men also played active roles in creating and renegotiating them through the messy interactions of everyday life Teaching Gender immerses the reader in lecture theatres University Senate meetings student unions nightclubs and halls of residence to show how individuals efforts to find workable paradigms for relating to one another across gender lines took shape within specific institutional political and financial constraints and in the context of a historical moment when anxiety accrued around non normative genders and sexualities as symptomatic of wider social and political instability Drawing on extensive research in the archives of ten colleges and universities across England and Scotland Samuel Rutherford shows that the nationalization and centralization of higher education at the turn of the twentieth century resulted incidentally in coeducation over the protest of feminist activists who supported gender segregation that students negotiation of cross gender interaction in coeducational universities ultimately led them to identify heterosexuality as a seemingly less fraught paradigm than more gender neutral conceptions of corporate life and that single sex men s and women s colleges though increasingly marginal became important sites for the theorization of life paths and identities outside the heterosexual norm Through detailed recovery both of political and financial decision making and of the experiences and emotions of faculty students administrators donors and national politicians Rutherford paints a vivid and resonant picture of the university campus as a key site for the transmission of norms around gender and sexuality Printers' Ink; the ...
