Resurrection

The resurrection is a central event in Christianity. Christians believe that Jesus was brought back to life on the third day after his crucifixion. This is considered to be the most important part of the mission on earth.

After Jesus died, some of his followers visited the tomb and found it empty. They were told by angels that Jesus had risen from the dead. Jesus then appeared to several of his disciples and spoke to them.

Jesus

Jesus of Nazareth is the central figure in the New Testament. He was born in Bethlehem and grew up in Nazareth. Jesus taught about the love of God and the Kingdom of God and many people from all over the world followed him.

Jesus taught many people because he performed miracles and gave people hope. His message was that everyone is loved by God no matter who they are. Jesus lived the importance of charity and forgiveness.

Sermon on the Mount

The Sermon on the Mount is one of Jesus' best-known teachings and can be found in the Gospel according to Matthew. It contains many of his most important ethical and moral teachings.

The Gospels are the most important sources for Christians to learn about the life of Jesus. They offer insights into his teachings and his love for all people.

Parables

Parables are short stories that Jesus told to convey spiritual or moral lessons. They are a well-known method that Jesus used to make his message understandable.

One famous parable is that of the "Prodigal Son", which explains the meaning of forgiveness and redemption. In many parables, Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to everyday things, such as a seed that grows or a shepherd looking for his lost sheep.

Parables are often used to teach about faith, love and justice.

Crucifixion

The crucifixion is the most important event in the New Testament. After Jesus was betrayed and arrested by the Romans, he was taken to the cross and crucified. He died on the cross for the sins of all people.
