More Tramps Abroad (Classic Reprint) Mark Twain,2018-11-22 Excerpt from More Tramps Abroad The starting point of this lecturing trip around the world was Paris where we had been living a year or two We sailed for America and there made certain preparations This took but little time Two members of my family elected to go with me also a carbuncle The dictionary says a carbuncle is a kind of jewel Humour is out of place in a dictionary We started westward from New York in midsummer with Mr Pond to manage the platform business as far as the Pacific It was warm work all the way and the last fortnight of it was suffocatingly smoky for in Oregon and British Columbia the forest fires were raging We had an added week of smoke at the seaboard where we were obliged to wait awhile for our ship She had been getting herself ashore in the smoke and she had to be docked and repaired We sailed at last and so ended a snail paced march across the continent which had lasted forty days About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Following the Equator Mark Twain,2020-05-06 Following the Equator every so often titled More Tramps Abroad is a non fiction social observation in the form of a travelogue published by using Mark
