More Trouble With The Obvious Poems:

More Trouble with the Obvious Michael Van Walleghen, 1981 More Trouble with the Obvious Michael Van Walleghen, 1981 In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen, 2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghen's new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career. Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves, In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghen's enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience: those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves. We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one. Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether. The Problem of Poetry in the Romantic Period M. Storey, 2000-05-16 This book provides a lively exploration of the way in which several of the major British Romantic poets confront the writing and theorising of poetry. The question 'What is a poet?' is asked and answered with great frequency and variety; invariably there is an underlying sense of unease, often in the shadow as it were of Wordsworth's lines 'We poets in our youth begin in gladness; But thereof comes in the end despondency and madness.' The apparent confidence of the manifestoes is undermined by the self-doubts of much of the poetry, ranging from Coleridge to John Clare. The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time Nicholas Nace, Charles Altieri, 2017-10-15 The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time offers original readings of poems composed in this century: poems that are challenging to follow, challenging to understand, challenging to discuss, and challenging to enjoy. Difficult poetry of the past relied on allusion, syntactic complexity, free association, and strange juxtapositions. The new poetry breaks with the old in its stunning variety, its questioning of inherited values, labels, and narratives, its multilingualism, its origin in and production of unnamed affects, and its coherence around critical and social theorists as much as other poets. The essays in this volume include poets writing on the works of a younger generation: Lyn Hejinian on Paolo Javier, Bob Perelman on Rachel Zolf, Roberto Tejada on Rosa Alcalá, influential writers addressing the work of peers: Ben Lerner on Maggie Nelson, Michael W. Clune on Aaron Kunin, critics making imaginative leaps to encompass challenging work: Brian M. Reed on Sherwin Bitsui, Siobhan Philips on Juliana Spahr, and younger scholars coming to terms with poets who continue to govern new poetic experimentation: Joseph Jeon on Myung Mi Kim, Lytle Shaw on Lisa Robertson. In pairings that are both intuitive: Marjorie Perloff on Craig Dworkin, and unexpected: Langdon Hammer on Srikanth Reddy. The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time illuminates the myriad pathways and strategies for exploring difficult poetry of the present. Contemporary American Poetry Lloyd M. Davis, 1985 Lists over 5200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983. The Poetry of Saying Robert Sheppard, 2005-01-01 The Poetry of Saying unearths a secret history of fifty years of experimental British verse, revealing and illuminating the daring work of British poets who have spent a half century rewriting the rules of English poetry. Poet Robert Sheppard considers individual poets such as Roy Fisher and Lee Harwood as well as the role of poetry magazines and the Poetry Society Sheppard's position at the center of the 1950s British Poetry Revival enables him to offer an insider's commentary on the social political and historical background of this particularly fertile and exciting period in British poetry

Conversations with Billy Collins John Cusatis, 2022-07-27 Billy Collins puts the fun back in profundity says poet Alice Fulton Known for what he has called hospitable poems which deftly blend wit and erudition Collins b 1941 is a poet of nearly unprecedented popularity His work is also critically esteemed and well represented in The Norton Anthology of American Literature An English professor for five decades Collins was fifty seven when his poetry began gathering considerable international attention Conversations with Billy Collins chronicles the poet's career beginning with his 1998 interview with Terry Gross on Fresh Air which exponentially expanded his readership three years prior to his being named United States Poet Laureate Other interviewers range from George Plimpton founder of the Paris Review to Pulitzer Prize winning poet Henry Taylor to a Presbyterian pastor a physics professor and a class of AP English Literature students Over the course of the twenty one interviews included in the volume Collins discusses such topics as discovering his persona that consistently affable voice that narrates his often wildly imaginative poems why poetry is so loved by children but often met with anxiety by high school students and his experience composing a poem to be recited during a joint session of Congress on the first anniversary of 9 11 a tragedy that occurred during his tenure as poet laureate He also explores his love of jazz his distaste for gratuitously difficult poetry and autobiographical poems and his beguiling invention of a mock poetic form the paradelle Irreverent incisive and deeply life affirming like his twelve volumes of poetry these interviews gathered for the first time in one volume will edify and entertain readers in the way his sold out readings have done for the past quarter century
