Kiewra, 2019-01-04 Explains steps that parents can take to help their child develop talent in any activity that has sparked his or her interest. Nurturing Children's Talents A Guide for Parents is a book for all parents. That's because talent is made not born and parents are in prime position to help children discover and develop talent whether the talent domain is archery baton twirling chess or zoology. Moreover talent development is a continuum along which all children can grow. Carnegie Hall might be the destination for some while community band is for others. Meanwhile most parents are eager to help their children traverse a talent path but don't know how until now. Nurturing Children's Talents offers parents insights and step by step plans to help children reach their potential. These recommendations stem from author Kenneth A Kiewra's personal experience raising a chess champion and his extensive research interviewing talented performers including national, world and Olympic champions and their parents across many domains Chess for Everyone Robert M Snyder, 2008 In Chess for Everyone national chess master and coach Robert M Snyder introduces chess to the beginner in twenty graduated lessons. Mr Snyder teaches the basic principles and then builds the student's knowledge in a clear and consistent manner. The reader is given a solid foundation in Basic rules, piece movements, checkmate, castling, en passant, drawn game and more. Opening principles, traps and a basic opening system. Middlegame strategy, checkmate patterns and tactics. Basic endgame strategy including basic checkmates and King and Pawn endings. Upon completing Chess for Everyone students can continue to expand their knowledge in all areas of the game by reading the other volumes in the Chess for Everyone series.

Winning Chess Traps Robert M. Snyder, 2007 This book covers sixty four additional opening traps that everyone can use MICHAEL OUR MIRACLE BOY Cathy Yonkers, 2012-06-25 The last thing I suppose someone who is contemplating suicide wants to do is read a memoir about a young beloved family member who did just that. But this memoir is different because its emphasis is on all of the good memories which a close family member holds for her lost son. The result of sharing this memoir is that it reveals the love, needs and strength that developed between all of the family members and others who touched their lives. It reflects the depth of a loving relationship and perhaps by telling this story and having others read this story we can all be helped those who may find themselves either in the position of wanting to end their lives or those who are in the position of having to accept and learn to live with the fact that they too have lost a loved one to suicide Children's
