Hundred Years of Mormonism John Henry Evans, 1905 Mormonism Bruce Kinney, 1912 The title of this the latest of the textbooks issued by the Council of Women for Home Missions may need a word of explanation It is generally acknowledged that Mormonism is similar to Mohammedanism in its endorsement of the practice of polygamy and its ideas of heaven Many other points of similarity between these systems have been noted by students and the Book of Mormon has marked resemblance to the Koran As all ancient religions have a modern equivalent Mormonism can justly be claimed to be the modern form of Mohammedanism and not incorrectly termed the Islam of America While the subject considered in this book should be approached only in a spirit of fairness and Christian sympathy it has become of too great importance in our national life to be omitted as a topic for careful study It is in response to a wide spread realization that this subject is a national problem and bears an important relation to Home Missions that the Council of Women presents this book In beginning its study it is wise to free the mind of some misapprehension Prominent among our national ideals are those of religious liberty for ourselves and toleration for our neighbors faith No violation of this principle is involved in a candid just and sympathetic study of any system of religious belief In the Handbook of our faith Christians are exhorted to prove all doctrines in order rightly to measure their truth and test their moral standards In this spirit this textbook has been written Dr Kinney is peculiarly fitted to deal with his subject both from careful investigation and from personal acquaintance with it in Utah The Mormon problem is not primarily a religious one nor should it be so considered The hierarchy which embodies this system has extended its influence into so many lines of our national concerns that Mormonism has ceased to be of merely theological or religious significance It must be studied in its relation to government and commerce to social conditions to its influence on state policies and even on the utterances of the press before it can be rightly understood as a factor in our present day nationality In all these connections it is presented by Dr Kinney and while he regards with Christian sympathy the followers of the Mormon religion he sees and presents clearly the dangers inherent in the designs ambitions and methods of the all powerful hierarchy which absolutely controls the affairs of the church and the lives of every one of its members The undue influence in the affairs of the nation and the councils of the government attained by this powerful body makes its beliefs and practices of national concern Dr Kinney s point of view is intelligent broad and just The Council of Women for Home Missions is glad to give to its readers and students a textbook so full of carefully authenticated information and written in a spirit of such justice and charity for those deceived indeed but honest in their mistaken beliefs From the Editorial Committee
