Morocco The Islamist Awakening And Other Challenges:

Morocco Marvine Howe, 2005-06-30 In Morocco Marvine Howe a former correspondent for The New York Times presents an incisive account of the Moroccan kingdom and its people past and present She provides a frank portrait of the late King Hassan whom she credits with laying the foundations of a modern state and she highlights the pressures his successor King Mohammed VI has come under to transform the monarchy into a modern democracy Howe addresses emerging issues equal rights for women the correction of glaring economic disparities and asks the question can this ancient Muslim kingdom embrace democracy in an era of deepening divisions between Islam and the West Islamists and the Politics of the Arab Uprisings Hendrik Kraetzschmar, 2018-06-30 Demonstrates how the textual output of settler emigration shapes the nineteenth century literary and artistic imagination Of Empires and Citizens Amaney A. Jamal, 2012-09-09 In the post Cold War era why has democratization been slow to arrive in the Arab world This book argues that to understand support for the authoritarian status quo in parts of this region and the willingness of its citizens to compromise on core democratic principles one must factor in how a strong U S presence and popular anti Americanism weakens democratic voices Examining such countries as Jordan Kuwait Morocco Palestine and Saudi Arabia Amaney Jamal explores how Arab citizens decide whether to back existing regimes regime transitions and democratization projects and how the global position of Arab states shapes people s attitudes toward their governments While the Cold War s end reduced superpower hegemony in much of the developing world the Arab region witnessed an increased security and economic dependence on the United States As a result the preferences of the United States matter greatly to middle class Arab citizens not just the elite and citizens will restrain their pursuit of democratization rationalizing their backing for the status quo because of U S geostrategic priorities Demonstrating how the preferences of an international patron serve as a constraint or an opportunity to push for democracy Jamal questions bottom up approaches to democratization which assume that states are autonomous units in the world order Jamal contends that even now with the overthrow of some autocratic Arab regimes the future course of Arab democratization will be influenced by the perception of American reactions Concurrently the United States must address the troubling sources of the region s rising anti Americanism Moroccan Women, Activists, and Gender Politics Eve Sandberg, Kenza Aqertit, 2014-09-26 Sandberg and Aqertit analyze how over the course of twenty five years dedicated smart and politically effective Moroccan women working simultaneously in multiple settings and aware of each other s work altered Morocco s entrenched gender institution of regularized practices and distinctive rights and obligations for men and women In telling the story of these Moroccan gender activists Sandberg and Aqertit s work is of interest to Middle East and North Africa MENA area specialists to feminist and gender researchers and to institutionalist scholars Their work operationalizes and offers a template for studying change in national gender institutions that can be adopted by practitioners and scholars in other country settings The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences , 2008 India and Morocco Uma the impact of political boundaries upon the region along with pressures from European and economic integration the resurgence of nationalism and refugee and security concerns The authors explore the politics of memory the ways in which the past shapes conflicts in the present but also how memories held by individuals and communities challenge master narratives of us versus them Turning to the present the book investigates how political fragmentation and divisive identities manifest in territorial borders influence everyday lives Rather than a clear cut boundary between North and South the vision that emerges is of a Mediterranean transformed by the forces of globalization into a set of hybrid frontiers borderlands
