

THE GREAT JOURNEY OF MOSES
AND THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL
