Most Wise Valiant Ladies:

Most Wise & Valiant Ladies Andrea Hopkins, 1997 Presents the lives of 6 medieval women Joan of Arc Eleanor of Aquitaine Margery Kempe Hildegard of Bingen Christine de Pisan and Margaret Paston Women of the Gilte Legende Jacobus, Larissa Tracy, 2003 This book is a prose translation of a selection of women saints lives from the Gilte Legende the Middle English version of Jacobus de Voragine's Legenda Aurea one of the most influential books to come from the middle ages Because of its popularity and subject matter the Gilte Legende was widely read and used as a model for everyday life including the education of women through examples set by early Christian martyrs Many of the women saints spoke passionately about their convictions and defended their faith and their bodies to the death For over 400 years these amazing vernacular stories have been inaccessible to a wider audience This book divides the lives of female saints into the right holy virgins who vocally defend their bodies against Roman persecution holy mothers who give up their traditional role to pursue a life of contemplation the repentant sinners who convert and voice their defiance against a society that demanded silence in women and the holy transvestites who cast off their gender identity to find absolution and salvation Their lives reach through the ages to speak to a modern audience academic and non academic forcing a re examination of women's roles in the medieval period LARISSA TRACY is Adjunct Assistant Professor of English at Georgetown University and George Mason University Series editor JANE CHANCE The Life and Times of Joan of Arc Jim Whiting, 2019-12-05 Until she was thirteen Joan of Arc led a normal life Then she began hearing voices She believed these voices spoke for God At first they told her to be a good girl A few years later they told her that her destiny was to save France from its English invaders Joan's inspirational leadership helped the French to defeat the English at the city of Orleans Soon afterward she persuaded the crown prince Charles to become King of France A few months later Joan was captured by her enemies Charles refused to help her in spite of all she had done After a one sided trial she was burned at the stake She was not forgotten Today she is honored with a national holiday in France Gloriana's Torch Patricia Finney, 2013-09-17 The year is 1587 The Spanish are preparing to launch the Armada against the English and Queen Elizabeth Ex soldier David Becket now responsible for the Queen's Ordnance discovers that large quantities of gunpowder are going astray Can someone in the heart of the English government be selling it to the Spanish Unaccountably he is plagued by vivid dreams of England invaded an alternative story where the Armada is victorious Patricia Finney's brilliant reworking of the Armada legend is an imaginative tour de force Thrilling intricate and inspiring this is a tale of courage of love and ultimately redemption Pandora's Daughters Jane Robinson, 2002 This enthralling history full of anecdotes and first hand accounts centres on women through the ages who have sidestepped restraint and raised the eyebrows of their contemporaries by choosing to make their own often highly idiosyncratic way of life The pedigree of the modern career woman is not generally supposed to be long reaching back only as far as those late Victorian pioneers who stormed the bastions of male professions Jane Robinson looks back over some 25 centuries and proves that theory quite wrong The 100 or so women portrayed here were busy behind the scenes of recorded history in the cause of earning an honest or perhaps not independent living Their enterprise and flair led them to careers as diverse as they are improbable ranging from engineers plumbers and surgeons to a naval commander in the Persian Wars a Dark Age Pope a successful Orcadian wind seller some pirates a Royal Marine and a stockbroker who ran for President of the United States The author considers such achievements against their place and time and the result is a tribute to an inspirational body of women whose significance has too long been ignored as well as a wonderfully entertaining read

Poet, Mystic, Widow, Wife Hetta Howes, 2026-02-10 Brilliantly revealing history of medieval women Howes s debut has just the right meld of insightful research enjoyable storytelling and contemporary contexts The Guardian A history of medieval women s lives as told through the prism of four exceptional individuals throughout the tensions of medieval womanhood strain and stretch eroticism and purity sexuality and motherhood silence and speech The New York Times Poet Mystic Widow Wife charts the lives and times of four medieval women writers Marie de France a poet Julian of Norwich a mystic and anchoress Christine de Pizan a widow and court writer and Margery Kempe a no good wife who all bucked convention and forged their own paths Largely forgotten by modern readers these women have an astonishing amount to teach us about love marriage motherhood friendship and earning a living Reading the words of these four writers Hetta Howes engagingly reveals how everyday women lived survived and thrived in medieval times Who did they marry and why Did they ever have extramarital affairs Could they earn money and become self sufficient Could they be leaders What did they think about death and what about life and their place in it Poet Mystic Widow Wife paints a vibrant portrait of these women their world and the ways they speak to us today

Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff, 1999-08 Encyclopedia of Women in the Middle Ages Jennifer Lawler, 2001 A reference guide to the culture history and circumstances of women in the Middle Ages from the years 500 to 1500 that profiles individual queens empresses and other women in positions of leadership and provides information on topics such as work marriage family households employment and religion The Depiction of Clothing in French Medieval Manuscripts Patricia May Gathercole, 2008

Courts of Love, Castles of Hate Aubrey Burl, 2008 The figure of the Troubadour combines the ideals of knighthood with the inspiration of the poet and musician and created a cultural explosion which influenced the whole course of Western art and civilisation Burl traces the story from the birth of the first Troubadour in 1071 to the execution of the last Cathar Good Man in 1231 and the close of the distinctive southern French culture that had given rise to it The tale incorporates the Crusades to the Holy Lands and the Albigensian crusades through the Languedoc and the regular incursions from the English In telling his story of the Troubadours and their song he brings to life the world of medieval Languedoc The author is acknowledged as an authority on the Troubadours one of the most evocative subjects in history Late Medieval England (1377-1485) Joel Thomas Rosenthal, 2003 The volume represents the second part of Rosenthal s cataloging of historical scholarship on Ricardian Lancastrian and Yorkist England covering categories from political and legal history to social and intellectual history and the arts As Rosenthal notes in the introduction its size 1 888 entries for the decade hardly gives much support to those who warn us of the imminent demise of the more traditional lines of historical endeavor and inquiry The Local Historian ,1999 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin
