Mother For His Family:

Christie: A Family's Tragic Loss and a Mother's Fight for Justice Anna Leask, Tracey Marceau, 2013-04-24 On the morning of 7 November 2011 Tracey Marceau lived every mother's worst nightmare A young man entered her home pushing Tracey to the side before kicking and repeatedly stabbing her daughter Christie died in her mother's arms Christie's killer Akshay Chand was released on bail just a month earlier for kidnapping Christie during which he threatened to rape and kill her Christie had begged the courts to keep him in custody fearing for her life Her death was entirely preventable Christie is the story of her life the events leading up to her killing and previously untold details of what happened that day Tracey shares how she and the family pulled together amid unthinkable tragedy and got their lives back on track Importantly this book questions how a calculating cold blooded killer could be found not guilty on grounds of insanity and how our country's bail laws could let an ordinary family down so disastrously Raw moving and thought provoking Christie is a tribute to a daughter taken too soon Christie will never be able to tell her story herself But as the mum of such a bright star I will ensure she is heard I will never give up because I know that she never would have Tracey Marceau Royalties from the sale of this book go to The Christie Marceau Charitable Trust

The Story of Vicente, Who Murdered His Mother, His Father, and His Sister Sandra Rodriguez Nieto, 2015-11-10 The intimate story of a teenager's murder of his family from an award winning Mexican journalist Sixteen year old Vicente and two of his high school friends murdered his mother his father and his little sister in cold blood Through a Capote like reconstruction of this seemingly inexplicable triple murder Sandra Rodriguez Nieto paints a haunting and unforgettable portrait of the most violent city on Earth with an in depth investigation into the thought process of the three boys the city of Ju rez and the drug cartels that wage war in its streets This book explores how poverty political corruption incapacitated government institutions and US meddling combined to create the explosion of violence in Ju rez The product of years of tenacious reporting that have brought Sandra Rodriguez Nieto international acclaim this book traces the rise of a national culture of extreme violence and is a testament to the extraordinary bravery of a reporter

Women's Performative Writing and Identity Construction in the Japanese Empire Satoko Kakiyama, 2022-11-28 In Women's Performative Writing and Identity Construction in the Japanese Empire the author examines how writers captured various experiences of living under imperialism in their fiction and nonfiction works Through an examination of texts by writers producing in different parts of the empire including the Japanese metropole and the colonies and territories of Taiwan Korea and Manchukuo the book explores how women negotiated the social and personal changes brought about by modernization of the social institutions of education marriage family and labor Looking at works by writers including young students in Manchukuo Japanese writer Hani Motoko Korean writer Chang Tok cho and Taiwanese writer Yang Ch ien Ho the book sheds light upon how the act and product of writing became a site for women to articulate their hopes and desires while also processing sociopolitical expectations The author argues that women used their practice of writing to construct their sense of self The book ultimately shows us how the words we write make us who we are      A Year with the Mother-play
