Anderson couldn't believe she let her best friend talk her into taking part in a Civil War re-enactment. She had better things to do with her time than take care of fake injuries on pretend soldiers in the smoldering heat. Yes, she would much rather use her nursing experience on real patients. Little did she know she was about to get her chance. 1863 Colonel Clayton Jefferson Walker didn't know what to make of the beautiful stranger wandering the Wilderness. When he interrogated her, he found her to be the answer to his prayers: a nurse who could take the place of his AWOL doctor. She intrigued him. Why would a respectable woman be doing in the thick of battle? War was no place for a lady, and it was no place for love. Somehow he had to get her to safety and out of his heart. From the moment Heath Masters lays eyes on Meredith Kenyon, he knows there's something mysterious in this pretty woman's past. True, she seems like a good mother to her little daughter, but as local sheriff Heath has seen his share of liars, and Meredith is certainly hiding something. But though his romantic gestures are met with suspicion, Heath can't help but be drawn to his vulnerable new neighbor. He doesn't entirely trust her, but he sure does want to kiss her. THE WOMAN ON THE RUN. About to lose her child in a devastating child-custody case, Meredith transformed herself from urban widow to small town mom, escaping the clutches of her abusive late husband and manipulative father. Fleeing across America, she ran straight into the arms of the lonely lawman. Heath's persistence melts her misgivings, making her wonder if she could overcome her traumatic former life. But could his love protect her from her past now and forever? THE PROTECTOR.
