More Than Words Cheryl Terra, 2022 Expressing Surprise at the Crossroads Susana Rodriguez Rosique, 2025-01-27
Expressing Surprise at the Crossroads has as its aim to evaluate the impact of mirativity in Romance languages or expressed differently to determine how these languages apprehend surprise and related notions as linguistic devices The different contributions included in the book point to revealing conclusions concerning the status of surprise in Romance as well as the place that mirativity occupies if any in the grammar of these languages In this vein the volume tries to answer questions such as to what extent do interactional contexts influence the development of mirative structures or how is the solidarity synchrony diachrony reflected in mirative constructions For Certain I'm Hurtin' Robert Stern, 2009-06 In society's overzealous pursuit of political correctness and gender equality the basic relationship needs between men and women have been distorted Experts like Dr Laura Schlessinger and Alison Armstrong have been saying for years that the key to a healthy fulfilling relationship is to honor each others primal needs all men want sex and attention all women want to be protected and provided for Unless we can embrace these needs and find a partner willing to do the same our relationships are doomed to failure Through a series of relationships Robert Stern struggled for years to understand these principles After the painful split from his third wife he embarked on a Quest for Shallowness embracing his need for sex and attention and discovered there's nothing shallow about meeting one's personal needs For Certain I'm Hurtin' chronicles Stern's roller coaster journey through love sex and the search for meaningful relationships in frank unapologetic detail He hopes his quest and revelations can help men and women learn how to transform their relationships into unions of true acceptance love and sexual fulfillment

Unveiling the Truth Melinda Feliciano, 2011-11-23 This book of poems gives the readers a reflection of the way the author sees herself as a person as a woman and how she wants others to perceive her It talks about how she doesn't need any other person to tell her what to do and how to live her life Being an independent woman makes her realize how short life is and how people should take advantage of every situation Reading each poem would help change the way a person sees himself as an individual and how one would want to be remembered Stories of the Heart Debbie Macomber, Brenda Novak, Meryl Sawyer, 2012-02-28 Even as you read these words there are women just like you stepping up and making a difference in their communities making our world a better place to live Three such exceptional women have been selected as recipients of Harlequin's More Than Words award To celebrate their accomplishments three bestselling authors have written short stories inspired by these real life heroines Debbie Macomber touches the heart in What Amanda Wants a young woman's story of strength and courage in the face of seemingly insurmountable odds Brenda Novak's Small Packages shows us how the love of a very special baby boy helps two people get past their pain and embrace a hopeful future together Meryl Sawyer explores the importance of creating balance in our lives stopping to smell the roses and making time to chase our dreams in Worth the Risk Caring and Well-being Kathleen Galvin, Les Todres, 2013-05-02 Something is missing in contemporary health and social care Health and illness is often measured in policy documents in economic terms and clinical outcomes are enmeshed in statistical data with the patient's experience left to one side This stimulating book is concerned with how to humanise health and social care and keep the person at the centre of practice Caring and Well Being opens by articulating Galvin and Todres innovative framework for humanising health care and closes with a synthesis of their argument and a discussion of how this can be applied in healthcare policy and practice It presents an innovative lifeworld led approach to the humanisation of care explores the concept of well being and its relationship to suffering and outlines the rationale for a focus on them within this approach discusses how the framework can be applied and how health and social practitioners can draw on aesthetic and empathic avenues to help develop their capacity for care provides direction for policy practice and education Investigating what it means to be human in a health and social care context and what the things that make us feel more human are this book presents new perspectives about how professionals can enhance their capacity for humanly sensitive care It is a valuable work for all those interested in ideas about care and caring in a health and social context including psychologists doctors and nurses
